

having been discharged from the working department, and being unable to sustain himself at school without work, Pres. Lattin and Prof. Shackleford were requested to try to adjust the difficulty between Mr. Shagge and the Superintendent of the working department. The general conduct of Messrs Day, Summ, and C. A. Redd was reduced 10% each for a violation of their promise of good behavior, by drinking wine, while on a fishing excursion.

On motion the Faculty adjourned.
