1971 ANNUAL REPORT ISSUE

Editor's Notes

We are including in this issue of the ALUMNUS the 1971 Annual Report. Careful reading of the report will, we hope, give you a better picture of the Alumni Association—what it is and what it does.

****

There have arisen some questions concerning the changeover from a contributions system to a system of annual dues for the Association, especially in view of the recently begun Annual-Giving Program by the UK Office of Development. We will attempt to answer some of these questions in the next issue of the OPEN DOOR newsletter.

****

Speaking of publications, we have devised and revised our schedule of publications and hope to adhere to the following: The ALUMNUS will be published in March, June, September and December. Copy deadlines for the magazine are eight weeks in advance of publication. The OPEN DOOR will be published in February, May, August and November, with copy deadlines six weeks in advance. As has been the case, we solicit contributions to YOUR publications, whether class notes or feature articles or letters telling us how bad (or good) we're doing.

Some discussions have arisen concerning financing of the new football stadium. Critics, particularly some students, have said that academic building money will be used. We know this not to be the case, but to clarify the situation, Lawrence E. Forgy, Jr., vice president for business affairs, will outline financing plans for the stadium in the next OPEN DOOR.

THE KENTUCKY ALUMNUS is published four times each year by the University of Kentucky Alumni Association, 400 Rose Street, Lexington, Kentucky 40506, and issued to all dues-paying members of the Association. Opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the University administration or the Alumni Association. Second class postage paid at Lexington, Kentucky.

Two Wonderful Years

The King Alumni House was filled with nostalgic conversation on at least two occasions this past fall as the classes of 1946 and 1951 gathered for reunions. Members of the '46 class met following the Kentucky-Tennessee game while '51 graduates convened following the Kentucky-Mississippi encounter. From the smiles on faces in these photo, congeniality reigned.

Cattie Lou Miller, Edward Farris and Betty and Ben Blue were among early arrivals for the reunion of the class of 1946, held following the UK-Tennessee football game November 20.

1946

Dot (Paar) and Bob Waterfield, left, of Maysville, discussed the evenings' activities with Mary Jane (Miller) and Bud Eades of Madisonville. Perhaps one topic was football prospect Alfred Collins of Madisonville, who, since then, has signed a letter-of-intent with coach John Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robertson (Arden Bullock), Lexington, are flanked by Dr. and Mrs. Glenwood Creech at the 1951 class reunion held September 25 following the UK-Mississippi football game. Dr. Creech is UK vice president for university relations.

1951

Malcolm and Mary Toombs Saunier, left, greet Carol (Chambers) and Bob Deen at the '51 reunion. Both couples are from Lexington.

Charles and Alpha Straub, left, of Maysville, and Dan and Julia Rawlings, Corbin, were among those present for the 1951 reunion.

The '51 reunion brought Carolyn and John Booe, left, of Frankfort, and Don and Irene Rawlings of Danville to the Alumni House following the UK-Mississippi game September 20.

Dues System Reinstated; Annual Giving Revamped

The end of the 1970-71 fiscal year brought the termination of the Alumni Annual Giving Program and the return of the Alumni Association to a system of Annual Dues as its source of revenue.

The Board of Directors, in cooperation with the University administration, authorized the changeover at its March, 1971, meeting. The Board felt the Association could better serve the University by reverting to the dues system abandoned in 1956. The relinquishing of the Annual Giving Program gave the University an opportunity to reorganize its development program with the intention of concentrating all private fund raising in one office as opposed to the many and diverse programs that had existed. It was the intention of the Alumni Board to continue the present level of service in addition to beginning a practice of being "friend-raisers" instead of "fund-raisers" for UK.

The Board established the level of annual dues at $10 for an individual alumnus and $12 for husband and wife. An alumnus is defined as anyone who has earned 12 or more semester hours at the University.

Life memberships are strongly encouraged by the Board, who instituted a deferred payment plan as an inducement for alumni desiring to so commit themselves. Individual Life Memberships were established at $150 or $30 per year for five years. Joint Life Memberships were set at $175 or five annual payments of $35 each.

Associate memberships, or memberships for those individuals with no academic connection with the University, were continued by the Board with the stipulation that associate members could not be members of Spindletop Hall (the faculty-alumni club) or enjoy second priority on season football tickets as they had in the past. Members in this category prior to the changeover would maintain the privileges originally granted them, however.

Nickell Addresses Graduates

(J. Paul Nickell, president of the University of Kentucky Alumni Association, Commencement remarks, May 8, 1971.)

The president of the Alumni Association of the University of Kentucky has no more rewarding duty than attending what might be called the initiation rites of those who thereby become eligible to join the organization.

As I participate in this celebration with you who are its focal point and with you educators, parents and spouses who have helped to bring this occasion into being, I want to direct my brief remarks to the Class of 1971.

As students, you have expressed many ideas about changes needed in the University, and probably most of you have felt thwarted that you often lacked the means of effecting your concepts.

With Governor Louie Nunn looking on, UK President Otis Singletary congratulates David C. Scott '40 after presenting him an honorary doctorate.

Nickell

Today, you move from a body of students some 18,000 strong into a corps of living alumni which you will swell to more than 47,000. This provides each of you a vehicle through which you, along with others with the same goals, can exert real influence toward making the University what you would like it to be.

Perhaps you feel that since you are leaving UK what it becomes or does not become no longer concerns you.

From this day, however, each of you will be known as a graduate of the University of Kentucky. And wearing that label, each will be affected in some measure by the fortunes of this University, be they good or ill. You, therefore, in one real sense will never leave the University just as its influence will never leave you.

And, aside from the practical effects that the University's status will have on your future, I would challenge your future, I would challenge your professions of idealism by reminding you that universities serve society, not just the students on campus at any one time. To wash your hands of the University's needs just because you no longer study there would be an admission that your struggles for change were only selfish sophomoric games.

Let me immediately express my faith, however, that you are genuinely concerned. And let me assure you that whatever your views on the needs of the University, you will find among the alumni many who are of the same mind and who are willing to work toward your goals with you. You might be surprised, too, to find that most of the University's living graduates are closer in age to you than to me.

You can work through the Alumni Association and the Alumni Association can work through you to make this University the quality institution that Kentucky, the nation, the students, the faculty and the alumni want and need.

As the current president, I invite each of you to join the Alumni Association and to become active in its work, contributing your fresh ideas and approaches, your talents and your time as well as your financial resources to our common goals.

Thank you, congratulations and Godspeed.
