

ANDREW JACKSON.

SEVENTH PRESIDENT. Served eight years. Was elected in 1828, and re-elected in 1832. Born in Mecklenburg County, N. C., March 15, 1767, and died near Nashville, June 8, 1845. Was Congressman and United States Senator from Tennessee; also Justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee. Became a Major-General in 1814, and January 8, 1815, fought his famous battle of New Orleans.

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON.

NINTH PRESIDENT. Served one month. Was elected President on the Whig ticket in 1840, but died one month after his inauguration, April 4, 1841. Was born at Berkeley, Va., February 9, 1773. In the War of 1812, he commanded the Northwestern frontier. In 1816 was elected to Congress, and in 1824, United States Senator. Was sent as Minister to Columbia, S. A., in 1828.

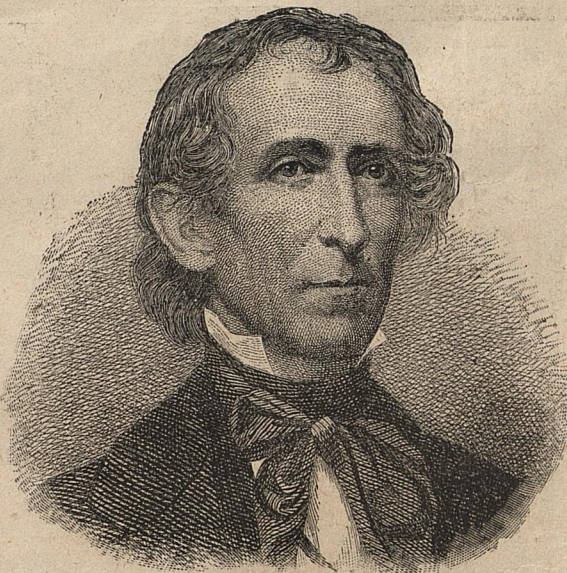

JAMES KNOX POLK.

ELEVENTH PRESIDENT. Served four years. Elected in 1844 on the Democratic ticket. Born in Mecklenburg County, N. C., November 2, 1795. Died at Nashville, Tenn., June 15, 1849. His administration was distinguished by the war with Mexico, the creation of the Interior Department at Washington, the adoption of low tariff, and other important events. Served in the Legislature, Congress, and as Governor of Tennessee.

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

EIGHTH PRESIDENT. Served four years. In 1832 was elected Vice-President on the Jackson ticket, and in 1836 was elected President over Harrison. Born at Kinderhook, N. Y., December 5th, 1782. Died at Kinderhook July 24, 1862. He served as Senator and Governor of his native State, and United States Senator; also as Secretary of State under President Jackson, and Minister to England.

JOHN TYLER.

TENTH PRESIDENT. Served nearly four years. In 1840 was elected Vice-President, and on the death of President Harrison, succeeded to the Presidency. Born in Charles City County, Va., March 29, 1790. Died at Richmond, Va., January 17, 1862. Was a member of the Legislature, Congressman, and Governor of the State of Virginia. Was also chosen United States Senator in 1827.

ZACHARY TAYLOR.

TWELFTH PRESIDENT. Served sixteen months. In 1848 was elected President on the Whig ticket, with Millard Fillmore as Vice-President. Born in Orange County, Va., September 24, 1784. Died at Washington, July 9, 1850. In 1808, succeeded his dead brother as a lieutenant in the army. Served through the War of 1812, also in the Black Hawk and Seminole Indian Wars, and in the War with Mexico, 1845-47.