WILDCATS FEATURED TWICE ON NATIONAL TELEVISION AND ONCE ON SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERIES

The Southeastern Conference Television Series enters its 12th year and the Kentucky Wildcats will keep intact their record of having appeared at least three times each year, making it the only SEC team to claim that magnetic attraction for its brand of basketball.

In fact, two of their games will be featured nationally and both will be in Lexington—Jan. 17 against Vanderbilt, and Mar. 6 against Alabama. The other SEC series game will be Feb. 7 at Tennessee.

Three teams—Alabama, Auburn and Tennessee are scheduled three times also, while Georgia and Vanderbilt will appear twice. Florida, LSU, Ole Miss and Mississippi State will appear only once.

The 10-week series over a regional network again will be produced by TVS Television of New York. All games will be played on Saturday afternoons.

Auburn opens the series at Louisiana State Jan. 3.

Kentucky has won 26 and lost only 14, for a 65 per cent win average during the eleven year series. The year-by-year breakdown: Won one of three games in '64-65, three of four in '65-66, two of four in both '66-67 and '67-68, three of five in '68-69, all four in '69-70, three of four in '70-71, two of three in both '71-72 and '72-73, one of three in '73-74, and all three in '74-75.

The Schedule:

Date	Teams	Tip-Off
Jan. 3	Auburn at Louisiana State	1:00 CST
Jan. 10	Georgia at Vanderbilt	2:00 CST
Jan. 17	Vanderbilt at Kentucky (National TV)	4:00 EST

About Auburn University

Chartered on February 1, 1856, as the Methodist-sponsored East Alabama Male College, Auburn University formally opened on October 1, 1859. In 1861, the Civil War interrupted the institution's growth.

The Methodist Church, unable to support the college financially after the war, presented it to the State of Alabama on February 26, 1872. The Alabama Legislature, having previously accepted the Morrill Act of 1862, established at Auburn the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College, the first land-grant college in the South separate from the state university. Women students were first admitted in 1892.

The college was renamed The Alabama Polytechnic Institute in 1899 and Auburn University in 1960. Both changes came in recognition of the institution's expanding academic program. Through its divisions of Instruction, Research, and Extension, Auburn touches the lives of most Alabamians.

Auburn's greatest growth and development has been experienced since World War II. The enrollment has increased to approximately 14,800 on the main campus.

In 1967, the Legislature approved a $5 million bond issue for an Auburn University campus at Montgomery. The citizens of Montgomery raised the funds for the purchase of a 500-acre site east of Montgomery on Interstate 85. The new campus was occupied in 1971. Auburn University at Montgomery admitted its first freshman class in September, 1969. It is a four-year accredited institution.

Auburn University at Montgomery also administers the graduate program at Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base; and is developing a continuing education program for the Montgomery area. Enrollment in the fall of 1972 at Montgomery was 2,050. Students are eligible to take courses at both campuses at one time.

Auburn's multi-million dollar plant is comprised of 62 main buildings located on 1,871 acres on the main campus and 500 acres of the Montgomery campus. Agricultural Experiment Station holdings over the state amount to an additional 16,731 acres.

The City of Auburn, in Lee County, was incorporated in 1838. It is 60 miles east of Montgomery, 120 miles southeast of Birmingham, and 125 miles southwest of Atlanta, Ga. Auburn sits astride the junction of the Piedmont Plateau and the Coastal Plain at an elevation of 732 feet and experiences moderate temperatures throughout the year. The city has an area of about 20 square miles and a population of approximately 23,000, which includes approximately 14,800 students.

JULIAN MORTON CARROLL became Kentucky's 58th governor on Dec. 28, 1974, succeeding Wendell H. Ford, who was elected to the U.S. Senate. Carroll then won a full four-year term in the 1975 general election. Born in McCracken County in 1931, he attended Paducah Junior College after graduating from Heath High School. He was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1954 and received his law degree from UK in 1956. Before becoming governor, Carroll served three years as lieutenant governor and ten years as a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives. He is an active member of the Optimist Club and a former Jaycee. He attained the highest office in Kentucky for laymen of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1966-67 when he was named moderator of the Kentucky Synod. The Governor and his wife, Charlann, have three children.

PRESIDENT OTIS A. SINGLETARY came to Lexington in August, 1969, from the University of Texas, Austin, where he was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs. Dr. Singletary, who is eighth president of the University, served a total of eight years at Texas, progressing during seven (1954-61) of those years from instructor to professor, associate dean of Arts and Sciences and assistant to the president. Then for five years (1961-66), he was chancellor of the University of North Carolina, although he was on leave from October 1964 to January 1966 to serve as director of the Job Corps, Office of Economic Opportunity.

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN became assistant director of athletics at UK June 1, 1972, and succeeded Harry C. Lancaster as AD July 1, 1975. A two-time consensus All-America, he led the Wildcats to 86 wins in 91 games and the 1951 NCAA championship and was co-captain of the undefeated 1954 team. He scored a then-record 41 points in leading Owensboro over Lafayette in the championship game of the 1949 State Tournament. He was a five-time All-Pro with the St. Louis Hawks.

JOE B. HALL

Kentucky Head Coach

- Coach of the 1975 national runner-up Wildcats.
- Coach of the Southeastern Conference co-champions after winning the conference championship two years earlier.
- SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in three years.
- Coach and Athlete Magazine's Southeast Region Coach of the Year for the second time in three years.
- Nominee For Kodak 1975 National Coach of The Year.
- Coach of his third consecutive UKIT championship team.
- Member 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

Such personal and team honors in 1975 were gratifying to Joe B. Hall, but the Wildcat coach has his eye on things more current as he enters his fourth year as head of the nationally famous Wildcats.

The challenge facing him now is entirely different from last year, when he blended a crop of big, talented freshmen with six fine seniors, a junior and two sophomores to produce a finely honed, exciting squad that set the nation on its ear and vaulted the Wildcats back into national prominence.

The scene has changed dramatically, leaving Hall with one of the most youthful squads in the history of Wildcat basketball. He feels they must overcome that youthfulness with intelligent play, 100 per cent hustle and defensive toughness.

Although he is recognized as one of the nation's finest offensive coaches, it was the defensive play of Hall's 1975 squad that caught the nation's imagination. The Wildcats at times were accused of being excessively rough and of using "karate" defense, but in the long run they proved that they were merely preparing themselves for the rugged road to the NCAA championship game.

The championship crown eluded Hall and the Wildcats, but they gave such a good account of themselves that Kentucky basketball again was a national byword.

At the end of the season, Hall's three-year record stood at 133-82, excluding a 17-2 record on a 1974 tour of Australia. He had the distinction in 1973 of becoming the first rookie coach in the SEC to be designated Coach of the Year by his fellow coaches and by Coach and Athlete Magazine.

Gathering such honors has been one of Hall's trademarks during a coaching career that began at Shepherdsville (Ky.) High School in 1956 and continued through Regis College and Central Missouri State College before he returned to UK in July 1, 1965, as an assistant to his former coach, Adolph Rupp.

During Hall's two years at Shepherdsville, the Cougars won a Mid-Kentucky Conference title and he was named "Coach of the Year" in 1958. He then served one year as freshman coach and five years as head basketball coach at Regis College in Denver, Colo., where he was also athletic director and earned special recognition as coach of the champion independent team in the area.

While in Denver, he also coached the Capital Federal host team in the 1964 AAU tournament and was selected as head coach of the AAU Stripes in the Olympic trials at Jamaica, N. Y.

His next move was to Central Missouri, where he coached the Mules (19-6) to their first MIAA Conference championship since 1951 and their first Christmas Tournament title in history. He was named MIAA "Coach of the Year" (1964-65).

A three-letter winner and team captain in both sports in high school at Cynthia, Ky., he played freshman basketball and one year of varsity basketball in the "Fabulous Five" era at the University before transferring to the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., where he set a school single game scoring record and was team captain. Coach Lon Varnell, upon retirement, rated Hall as No. 1 of the three best players he ever coached.

After touring Europe with the Globetrotters in 1951, Hall returned to U.K. in 1955 to complete requirements for his B.A. and later (1964) received his M.A. at Colorado State University.

Returning to U.K. again in 1965 as assistant coach and head recruiter, he was instrumental in adopting a running-conditioning program which obviously paid huge dividends as the Wildcats capitalized on speed and endurance to offset a lack of size and advance to the championship game of the NCAA Finals. Hall then successfully recruited six prep All-Americans, including all-time U.K. scoring leader Dan Issel, to form the nucleus of a varsity team that won three straight conference championships and was followed by a team that won three more consecutive SEC titles.

Hall became No. 1 varsity assistant and head freshman Coach to Rupp after Harry C. Lancaster was named permanent athletic director Feb. 1, 1969. His record with the freshmen was 60-15, including an undefeated (22-0) season (1971-72) which resulted in the Kittens being crowned National Freshman Champions by the Basketball News.

During his first season as head coach, the Wildcats won their last nine conference games to sew up the SEC title.

His nine-year coaching record is 135-82. Broken down, it shows a 57-50 five-year mark at Regis, a 19-6 record at Central Missouri, and a 59-26 three-year record at Kentucky.

A popular personality on the clinic and convention circuits, Hall also has had much international exposure. In addition to the Globetrotters tour in 1951, and the "Down Under" tour in 1974, he has helped conduct basketball clinics for the U.S. Army in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska (1968) and at Ramstein Air Base in Frankfurt, Germany and the RAF Base at Mildenhall, England, last Sept. He also was Olympic Trials coach under Hank Iba at the Air Force Academy in July 1972 and is a member of the 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

He is married to the former Katharine Dennis of Harrison County, Ky. They have three children—Judy, 20; Kathy, 19, and Steve, 15.

WHO WERE THE 'FABULOUS FIVE'?

The most frequently asked question tossed at basketball historians and sports authorities is "Who were the 'Fabulous Five' of Kentucky?" The answer is Alex Groza (center), Ralph Beard and Kenny Rollins (guards), Wah Wah Jones and Cliff Barker (forwards). This famous 1948 team, captained by Rollins, won 36 and lost 3 while sweeping to Kentucky's first NCAA title and went on to participate as a unit in the Olympic Games—helping the USA team capture the world championship. Rollins graduated after the '48 season, but the remaining foursome continued to play havoc with collegiate basketball and copped another NCAA title for Kentucky in 1949 on a record of 36-2.

(Tournament decided champion until 1951. Title determined by regular season play starting in 1951. Kentucky did not play a schedule in 1953 due to NCAA suspension.)

"The best college basketball announcer in the country." That's what one publication calls Cawood Ledford. It's a deserved compliment for "Mr. Kentucky," as Curt Gowdy calls the "voice" of the Kentucky Wildcats.

Cawood Ledford is as much a part of Kentucky basketball as the fast break. Ledford is nearing a quarter of a century behind the microphone calling the Wildcats' play-by-play. The Sports Director for WHAS, Louisville, has been selected "Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year" seven times.

Supplying the color commentary is Ralph Hacker, vice-president and general manager of WVLC, Lexington.

This popular team brings the exciting action of Wildcat basketball to fans throughout the state.

WILDCAT COACHING ASSISTANTS

DICK PARSONS, Assistant Coach

To label Dick Parsons a easy-going, carefree individual, would be a gross miscalculation. The former star U.K. athlete, who holds the distinction of captaining two varsity sports—basketball and baseball—thrives on competition and as the saying goes, “will flat get after you,” whether he is involved in his daily running program, playing golf or going after a lunker in his favorite fishing hole on the Licking River. And it is this spirit which reaps dividends with the Wildcats on the basketball court.

The well respected Parsons, who begins his fourth year as Joe B. Hall’s No. 1 assistant, returned to the University as baseball coach in 1969. Before giving up his position to join basketball on a full time basis, he molded a team (1971) which established or tied 15 school records.

A mountaineer in his own right, Parsons came to the University in 1958 after an outstanding career as a four-sports star at Harlan High School, where he had a three-year basketball scoring total of 1,276 points.

A consistent player who made few mistakes at UK, Parsons was known as a fine outside shooter and for his aggressive defense during three years as a starting guard. His career high 21 points came against Mississippi as a sophomore.

He was a two-time (1960, '61) recipient of the coveted A. B. Chandler award, given annually for the player best exemplifying the qualities of leadership, scholarship, character and ability. Only three other Wildcats have twice been so honored since the award was originated in 1951.

Holding more Wildcat baseball records than any other player, he was an All-Conference shortstop in 1959 and 1961, All-NCAA District 1960, '61, and All-American '61. He hit .400 his senior year.

He was an assistant football coach at Glasgow High two years and baseball and basketball coach at Boyle County High from 1963 to 1968.

While working on his Master’s Degree at the University in 1968-69, he scouted, recruited and helped with the Wildcat freshmen team, later accepting a part-time assistantship in basketball in addition to his baseball job.

He is married to the former Celia Cawood of Harlan. They have a daughter, Kathy, 9, and a son, Ed, 11.

LEONARD HAMILTON, Assistant Coach

Much of Kentucky’s defensive prowess last year can be credited to the talent of Leonard Hamilton, a second year assistant, who came to UK after three years as an assistant at Austin Peay State University.

In high school at Gastonia, N. C., he lettered three-years in football and twice in basketball. He was basketball team captain two years at Gaston Community College in Dallas, N. C., where he scored 54 points in one game, set a record for most field goals in a season, and was All-Region and All-Tournament.

At University of Tennessee—Martin, he was team captain and led in assists and steals, was most valuable defensive player, All-Conference and All-Tournament. He was elected “Mr. Volunteer” by the student body and played in the Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game.

At Austin Peay, he coached the freshman team, scouted and recruited. During his three years there, the Governors went from last place to first in the OVC, appeared in two NCAA tournaments and were nationally ranked in scoring.

He is married to the former Claudette Hale. They have a son, Lenny, 5.

LYNN NANCE, Assistant Coach

A stickler for detail and a motivator of young men are just two qualities which brand Lynn Nance as one of the bright young coaches on the collegiate basketball scene.

A former All-Coast and All-Pac 8 Conference forward at the University of Washington, Nance had coaching experience at his alma mater and was with the FBI and NCAA before joining UK in August 1974 as head recruiter and assistant coach.

He began his collegiate basketball career at Southwest Baptist Junior College in Bolivar, Mo., after earning prep All-State and All-District honors as a four-sports athlete in his native Granby, Mo.

He starred for Washington in 1963-64 and 1964-65, and after graduation, spent most of one exhibition season with the St. Louis Hawks before an injury ended his pro aspirations.

He was coach and athletic director one year at Versailles, Mo., High School, where he compiled a 28-2 record, won the conference championship and advanced to the regional play-offs.

Nance was freshman coach under Mac Duckworth at Washington one year and freshman coach and recruiter two years under Tex Winter, with varsity coaching assignments on defense and with the big man.

He spent three years with the FBI before joining the NCAA headquarters staff of Walter Byers. He is married to the former Sally Ann Scholes of Granby. They have a son, Kevin, 12.

WILDCATS CARVE INCREDIBLE POST-SEASON TOURNAMENT RECORD

Since Kentucky made its first appearance in a major post season basketball tournament in 1942, no graduating class has ever missed the opportunity to play in either the NCAA or National Invitational Tournaments.

In fact, the Wildcats have an incredible record which has seen them miss only seven times (1943, '53, '54, '60, '63, '65, '67 and '74) in the past 32 years. Two of those misses were in 1953, when they sat out a season, and '54, when the undefeated National Champions won an automatic NCAA berth but declined the bid.

Dr. Robert M. Davis

Head Basketball Coach

Auburn University

DR. BOB DAVIS' RECORD

Year	School	Record	Pct.
1951-53	High Point	37-23	.616
1953-73	Georgetown	415-182	.695
1974-	Auburn	28-24	.538
	TOTALS	462-221	.676

With a winning 28-24 record after only two seasons, Bob Davis continues to revitalize Auburn's basketball program, working diligently to put the Tigers in a position to contend for SEC and national honors.

Davis led Auburn's 1975 team to an 18-8 finish and a tie for third place in the SEC, despite starting three freshmen, two sophomores and one junior. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by United Press International for his efforts.

His first Auburn team went 10-16, playing with two freshmen, two sophomores and one senior in the starting line-up.

Davis came to Auburn after a 20-year coaching career at Georgetown, Ky., College where he compiled a 415-182 record for a winning percentage of almost 70 percent. A fiery, animated man, Davis is well-known among his coaching colleagues for being in constant motion, whether it's on or off the court.

Davis began his coaching career at High Point College in North Carolina in 1951. His two years there produced 20-10 and 17-13 records. He became head coach at Georgetown in 1953 and had a 17-10 mark, won the N.A.I.A. District title and competed in the national tournament at Kansas City.

Since that early successful beginning, the 48-year-old Davis has reached several milestones in 24 years as a head coach. His teams have averaged 20 victories a year and produced 20 or more wins 14 different seasons. Davis sent teams to the N.A.I.A. national tournament eight times, finishing in second place in 1961 and fourth in 1958. He was N.A.I.A. Coach of the Year in 1959.

Davis has been very active in coaching on the international level, spending four summers overseas. His latest tour was a four game schedule in Israel the summer of 1973 with Auburn. He coached the U.S. World University team (Auburn's John Mengelt was a member) to an 18-2 record and second place behind Russia in the World University Games in 1970 at Turin, Italy. His U.S. Team of Limited Height (six feet or under) had a 6-1 European record and won that classification's first international tournament in Barcelona, Spain. In 1966, Davis' Georgetown team won the Hapoel Games in Tel-Aviv, Israel.

That 1966 Georgetown team produced Davis' best record, 25-2. His 1961 team placed second in the N.A.I.A. national tournament and had a 27-9 record.

Davis served as an assistant coach in the 1960 Olympic Trials and was head coach of a 1972 Olympic Trials team.

Davis graduated from Georgetown June 3, 1950, and three days later was giving his first college lecture. His college basketball coach had taken a new job at High Point College and convinced Davis to come along as an assistant. Elevated to head coach the next year, Davis had a two-year mark of 37-23 before returning to Georgetown in 1953.

During his tenure there, Davis was head basketball coach 20 years, head football coach six years and head baseball coach four years. He also served as Athletic Director and Chairman of the Physical Education Department from 1964 through 1972. In between seasons, Davis completed requirements for his Master's Degree from the University of Kentucky and his Doctorate from Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn.

ASSISTANT COACH LARRY PHILLIPS

LARRY PHILLIPS came to Auburn as an assistant from Georgetown, Ky., College in 1970.

Before Phillips moved to Auburn, he had served as an assistant football coach, assistant basketball coach and was a physical education instructor with the rank of assistant professor for five years at Georgetown. He worked under present Auburn basketball coach Bob Davis.

Phillips first came to Georgetown in 1957 out of Pikeville, Ky., where he was a great all-around athlete. At Georgetown, Phillips was a four-year letterman in football and basketball and was elected captain of both sports his senior year. In football, he was an N.A.I.A. All-America football selection in 1959 and 1960.

He graduated with an A.B. degree from Georgetown in 1961. He attended graduate school there, serving as assistant football and basketball coach until he received his Master's Degree in Administration in 1963.

After two years as an assistant coach at North Royalton High School in Cleveland, Phillips returned to Georgetown in 1965 at Davis' request.

ASSISTANT COACH JOHN LYKINS

JOHN LYKINS begins his third year as an assistant under his former college coach after 12 years of successful coaching in Kentucky prep circles. He came to Auburn after eight years at Franklin County High School in Frankfort Ky., where he compiled a 139-68 record. Lykins' other four years in the high school ranks were spent at Frankfort High School, where he had a 72-31 record. His total high school record is 211-99.

Lykins graduated from Lewis County High School in Vanceburg, Ky., and began an athletic career at Georgetown in 1953, where he played on Bob Davis' first team there.

After graduation from Georgetown in 1957, Lykins played two years of professional baseball in the Cleveland chain in Montana and North Dakota before beginning his coaching career in 1960.

He coached at Frankfort High from 1960 through 1964, and at Franklin County from 1966 through 1973.

At Frankfort, Lykins won two district and conference titles. At Franklin County, his teams won the Mid-State conference title twice and Lykins was twice named Coach of the Year. His 1967 team went to the state playoffs, compiling a 24-8 season record.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring intercollegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletics Association.

A board of directors, headed by the President of the University in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program.

In addition to the UK President, board officers include the Vice-President for Student Affairs as vice-chairman and Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary. Seventeen other members, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president as do two student representatives.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of the athletic program is Athletic Director Cliff Hagan.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

FRANK HAM, Assistant Director of Athletics

Frank Ham became Assistant Director of Athletics in July 1975 soon after Cliff Hagan succeeded Harry C. Lancaster as Director of Athletics.

A native of Scranton, Pa., Ham came to the University in 1969 as Administrative Assistant to football coach John Ray, and was reassigned to the Athletic Director's staff in 1972 when Ray resigned.

Ham graduated from high school at Niles, Mich., and completed his undergraduate work at Olivet College. He did graduate work at Indiana University and coached high school football and track at John Adams High in South Bend in 1944-46 and then returned to Olivet as athletic director and head football and basketball coach.

In 1962, he became assistant to the president at Olivet, with responsibilities in public and alumni relations. He was in private business from 1954 until 1968.

He is married to the former Rosemary Woods of Niles, Mich. They have two sons, Michael, 32, of Raleigh, N.C., and Craig, 29, a U.S. Army Captain, and two daughters, Mrs. Sue Ann Winchester of Cassopolis, Mich., and Jennifer, 19, a sophomore at UK.

Ham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Ham of Edwardsburg, Michigan.

University of Kentucky School Songs

ON, ON, U. OF K.

On, On, U. of K.
We are right for the fight today.
Hold that ball and hit that line;
every wildcat star will shine.
We'll fight, fight, fight for the blue and white,
as we roll to that goal, varsity.
And we'll kick, pass and run
'till the battle is won,
and we'll bring home the victory.

U.K. ALMA MATER

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
sound her praise with voice united;
to the breeze her colors fling.
To the blue and white be true;
badge triumphant age on age.
Blue the sky that o'er us bends;
white Kentucky's stainless page.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corn-top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor
All merry, all happy and bright;
By'n by hard times comes a-knocking at the door
Then my old Kentucky home, Good-night!
Weep no more my lady, Oh! weep no more today!
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home
For the old Kentucky home, far away.
