

Have No Fear... ...Pride Is Here

Volunteer Awards Banquet

Please join us for the 9th Annual Volunteer of the Year Awards Banquet as we celebrate, recognize and honor those in our community who have volunteered so much of their time and talent over the past years. A delicious meal, wonderful entertainment and a special guest speaker will also be a part of this pride filled event.

It is earlier in the month this year, Sunday, June 11th, cocktails at 5 pm, dinner at 6pm at The Hilton Suites at Lexington Green. The cost is $25 per person. Call Terry for tickets at 252-2867 (day) and 255-5490 (evening).

Pride Picnic

The Pride Picnic, the largest queer pot luck in Kentucky and our best attended pride event, will be Sunday, June 4 at Windy Knoll Farm, rain or shine. (Directions on pages 2 and 16) Parking may be tight, so plan to come with friends.

The Pride Picnic will kick off this year with a softball game between Lesbians & People in Drag. The

Our Voices Win Freedom LMC Celebrates Pride

On Saturday night, June 17th, the Lexington Men's Chorus' 10th Anniversary Season will culminate with their Pride show, "Our Voices Win Freedom." Since 1992 LMC has been proud to be a part of the Pride Month celebration for Central Kentucky.

Tickets are $12 adults, $10 student and senior and $6 child under 10 and are available from chorus members or from the Singletary Center Ticket Office at 257-4929. Please be aware that the Sat. night June 17th is the ONLY performance. Some previous promotional materials referenced a second performance on Sun June 18th.

At the first Pride show, 19 men performed in tux shirts and rented cummerbunds the color of the pride flag. The evening was billed as a "talent" night and LMC shared the stage of Arts Place with local singers, dancers and comedy acts. Over the next 7 years, LMC brought together the best regional gay and lesbian choruses for their Pride shows, performing with Indivisible, SisterSound and Voices of Kentuckiana.

Fairness Pride Event

Barbara Kingsolver and Fenton Johnson return to their native Kentucky and join Nikki Finney for a reading to benefit the Kentucky Fairness Alliance. These three great authors will create an evening you will not want to miss. The cost is $10, the time is 7 PM on Sunday, June 25 and the place is Memorial Hall, UK campus facing Limestone.

Kingsolver made her debut in the literary world a dozen years ago with The Bean Trees, a novel about a young woman who leaves rural Kentucky and moves to Tucson. Since then, her novels include Animal Dreams and Pigs in Heaven, both bestsellers, and The Poisonwood Bible which has spent the last year on the New York Times bestseller list. She has a committed international following, but is finding time to return to Kentucky and read from her current works.

Loren Tice will offer audiences a diverse range of LMC talent. Highlights include: "Ella's Song" and "In This Moment", songs that have become lesbigay Pride standards. "My Favorite--Miss Things," a parody by Eric Layne Barnes skewering everyone from Newt to Jan Brady and Cher, "The Gift You Gave", the final commissioned work to celebrate LMC's Anniversary, and "Somewhere Over the Rainbow", need we say more.

In addition to the chorus pieces, individual members of LMC will shine in solo performances including: "I Know Him So Well" a duet from Chess, with Shebly Reynolds and Scott Stivers, "Being Alive" from Company, performed by Milton Minor, "Bring Him Home" from Le Miz, sung by John Hawks, and "Stars" a star turn by Richard Giles as he moves from the podium to the spotlight. Don't miss this fine Pride Concert.

Fenton Johnson grew up near Gethsemane, Kentucky, a Trappist monastery in rural Kentucky. He is the ninth of nine children. He is the author of two novels, Crossing the River and Scissors, Paper, Rock, as well as Geography of the Heart: A Memoir. Scissors was nominated for the San Francisco Bay Area Book Reviewers Award and the Boston Review Fisk Award for best fiction of 1994. Portions of Geography of the Heart appeared in the New York Times Magazine, and have been anthologized in college literature textbooks. It received the American Library Association Award and the Lambda Literary Award for best gay/lesbian nonfiction of 1996. Johnson is working on a third novel, Finding Faith: A Skeptic's Journey.

But wait-- there's more! Nikky

Finney, poet, lecturer, and English professor at the University of Kentucky, will read from her current works as well as emcee the evening. While Nikky hails from South Carolina, she has made Kentucky her home since 1989.

All proceeds from this reading benefit the Kentucky Fairness Alliance. We are truly honored to have these incredible authors share their time and talent with us. Join us!

Pride Center

An open Pride Center Committee meeting will be held at 7 pm at the Pride Center on Tuesday, June 20, a week later than originally scheduled. We will be reviewing materials for the Gill Grant and discussing the future of the Center.

This committee is open to new membership. You have to attend two consecutive meetings to be considered for appointment as a voting member. But anyone can come and express an opinion. Since we work on a consensus model of decision making, non members often influence the decisions.

The decisions we are discussing include: 1. What are our priorities for the Gill Grant and other grants for which we are applying? (office staff, rent, equipment, phone line, ??) 2. When our lease is up in February of 2001, should we consider moving and if so where? 3. We are not taking in as much money as we pay out in rent and utilities. What else can we do to raise money? 4. How can this center be more useful to our community?

Directions to Picnic

From Lexington, take Winchester Rd 5 1/2 miles past New Circle Rd. Cleveland is the first left after the second blinking yellow light. Windy Knoll Farm is 1/2 mile down the road at 3263 Cleveland Rd., North. BRING FOOD TO SHARE-NO ALCOHOL PLEASE game begins at 11:30am. There will be entertainment and good food starting around 12:30. Fairness and GLSO are sharing the work of the picnic this year and we could always use a few volunteers to help at the event. Call Mary Crone (266-5904) if you can help set up that morning, sell soft drinks for a while during the picnic, or help clean up.

Everyone that comes should bring a dish to share using this division as a guide. (If you have a favorite item you want to make that doesn't fit this list, go for it.)

A-F SALAD OR BREAD

G-R MAIN DISH (can be veggie)

S-Z DESSERT

Cold soft drinks and water will be sold by GLSO to cover the costs of the picnic. Please do not bring alcohol. In addition to food, bring a lawn chair or blanket to make yourself comfortable. There is covered space in case of rain.

There are lots of expenses to putting on this event: renting sound equipment, tables, porta potties, buying paper plates and forks, etc. You can help by spending some money on cold drinks, raffle tickets, t-shirts, or other pride items. Fairness and the Pride Month Account will benefit from any profits.

videos will be shown at the Unitarian Universalist Church (3564 Clays Mill Road) every Thursday throughout the month. Videos will begin at 7:00 p.m. except on June 15, when we will begin at 7:30 p.m. to allow time for people to eat at local restaurants participating in Dine Out For Life. Video night is free, but feel free to bring snacks or soft drinks to share with others. Information about the movies can be found on page 7.

On Sunday, June 11 Reverend Cynthia Cain and Interweave members will lead the Unitarian Universalist Church's annual Gay Pride Service. The service will begin at 10:45 a.m., and child care is available. Interweave will host a potluck lunch after the service, so please bring a dish to share.

Remember, everyone in the community is invited to Interweave events. You don't have to be a member of the Unitarian Universalist Church or Interweave to participate. For more information about Interweave events, please call Davina at 271-6174.

Rainbow Volleyball Tournament

Come join us for some free, fun, friendly competition! Refreshments, supplies, T-shirts and trophies provided. Saturday, June 3rd 9 am - 6 pm at the Dunbar Center, 545 N. Upper St. no charge Sponsored by AIDS Volunteers and Volunteers of America HIV/AIDS Prevention Program.

Social Concepts

Mark your calendars for the weekend of June 10-11. Social Concepts and any other interested people will be helping to construct a new playground for Gardenside park, off Appomattox which is off Alexandria. They need 50 volunteers, so put on your work clothes and help us! We plan to meet at 8 am at a shelter near the Holly Springs entrance for breakfast. You can arrive later in the day if sleeping is your primary interest on Saturday morning. Bring tools, sun screen, and a community spirit. I need a head count of those planning to attend so call Ginger at 389-7698 or email at gg40504@hotmail.com. I can give you directions also.

Pride Prom

Wednesday, June 7 is Prom day in Lexington. Once again the Imperial court will be producing a prom for the Lexington community. The place will be Club 141 and doors will open at 9:00pm. And you will believe Club 141 is Lavender High School!

This prom will have liberal dance breaks, so you can dance with your sweetie. If you are temporarily without a sweetie, there will plenty of opportunities to meet a new one. Entertainment will be provided by members and friends of the Imperial court of Kentucky.

Prior to Pride Prom, Mia's at 120 S Upper St. will be having pre-prom dinner specials (reservations required). Call 455-9903 for reservations. In

In addition to the dinner specials, a photographer will be on hand for professional portraits.

This Prom will be a great way to gear up for the Imperial Court's July Coronation season, culminating July 9th at the Radisson Hotel.

PRIDE BOWLING

In celebration of Pride and in support of the efforts of Bluegrass Fairness, the Thoroughbred Invitational Tournament, Inc. and Bluegrass Fairness are jointly sponsoring the Second Rainbow City Scotch Doubles No-tap Bowling Competition. The tournament will be held on Sat., June 10, at Collins Southland Lanes, 205 Southland Dr..

NO experience in bowling is necessary for this type of bowling and an established average is not required. If you do not have a partner, we will find one for you during registration..

The entry fee is $12.00 per person. Registration will begin 7 pm. Bowling should be completed by 9:30 pm. There will be cash prizes, as well as a chance to win a 50 \ 50 raffle. The winning organization will be announced at the Pride Banquet Sunday evening, June 11.

In Scotch Doubles No-tap, knocking down nine pins (as opposed to ten) is scored as a strike and two people bowl each frame as a team in strict rotation.

For further information, call Jim Dickinson at 252-5801 or Steve Rosenberg at 276-3058 or email Jim at JD47ALJ@aol.com or Steve at LexRainbow@aol.com. We look forward to seeing you. Good luck and good bowling.

Tiffany & Co. Pride Center Benefit

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, June 14. Tiffany Andrews, Briana Carey, and Cheyenne will be in face, in voice, and in person. We're also looking for a special appearance from Anthony. These performers put on a wonderful live show for fun and to benefit local organizations. This show will benefit The Pride Center of the Bluegrass, which is in great need of financial support.

There will also be a "Know Your Partner Show"; if you like the newly wed game, you'll love this one! Admission is $3.00 at 9 pm at Crossings.

Dining Out For Life

Please plan to bring your friends and dine out at a participating restaurant on Thursday, June 15. All the restaurants listed below have agreed to donate 30% of that dinner receipts to Moveable Feast, Lexington. More restaurants will be added. Need more information? call 252-2867

Amazons' Community Hike

Join the Amazons for a day hike in the Red River Gorge on Saturday, June 17th, (Rain Date June 18th). This one is open to all people of whatever gender variation. To accommodate as many people as want to come, the trail will be in the easy-moderate difficulty range and we will plan to return with enough time for everyone to go to that night's performance of the Lexington Men's Chorus as well! Please help spreading the word. and by explaining the general Amazon "rules" to non-members. Kids and dogs are ok as long as the parents are responsible for them. If your dog bites (also if your child bites...), please be considerate and leave them at home. Thank you!

The Phoenix

As part of the pride month observances at The Phoenix, we will be showing gay movies on Wednesday evenings from 8-10 PM. The schedule is as follows:

June 1 Billy's Hollywood Screen Kiss
June 14, Leather Jacket Love Story;
June 21, Crusing;
June 28, Tricks.

In addition, the Kentucky Mr. Drummer/Drummerboy 2000 contest is being held June 9-10 and the Gryphons, a leather club from Dayton, OH will be hosting a Leather Pride Bar Nite at The Phoenix on Saturday, June 17.

Metropolitan Community Church

On Sunday, June 25, Metropolitan Community Church will present its annual PRIDE worship service at 10:30 a.m. At noon, a Prudential Estate & Financial Planning Seminar will be held at the church. LMCC is located at 385 Waller Ave.

Also In June, MCC will offer a Bible Study entitled "Show Me the Money!!" on Wed. nights from 6:30-7:30 p.m. The study will focus on how we use the resources God entrusts with us. A brown bag dinner begins at 6 at the church. For information call Rev. Mel at 255-4016.

Lexington's MCC will be in attendance at the Great Lakes District Conference in Indianapolis, IN, June 2-4. Other LMCCers will rally at the Pride Picnic at Windy Knoll Farm on Sunday, June 4. Movie Nite will be on Saturday, June 10, at 7:00 p.m. This month's offering is "The Omega Code." Call 255-4016 for location.

On Saturday, June 17, MCC will celebrate the young and young at heart. A trip is planned to Chuck E. Cheese pizza and parents and children are MCC's invited guests for the event. There is no admission charge for parents and their children. Anyone else is invited to attend and a donation of $6 covers the fun. The event at Chuck E. Cheese will be from 5:00-7:00 p.m. Anyone planning to attend is requested to R.S.V.P. by Wed., June 14. All events are open to the public. For information, call Rev. Mel Bailey at 255-4016.

PLAYS FROM ACT-OUT

ACT-OUT, the theatrical arm of the Pride Center is once again presenting a play during the June Pride Activities. This year, ACT-OUT is trying something new: two plays running in repertory. The first play, Bed & Breakfast, is a hilarious two act comedy set in Provincetown. Danny, the owner of the B & B Cock and Bull, is turning 36. Joining him on his birthday weekend is his widowed mother and a house full of outrageous characters. Bed & Breakfast will be presented on Fri., June 23 and Sat., July 1.

The second play, A Late Snow, is a two act drama. A group of six women retire to a cabin in the woods for a weekend of rest and relaxation, only to be confronted with secret pasts, long lost lovers, and present desires. This show will be shown on Sat., June 24 and Fri., June 30.

Both shows will be at the Central Public Library in downtown Lexington. Tickets will be available at the door. For information, email Dave Morrison at: terpbear@aol.com

Please be aware that it takes a great deal of volunteer hours to mount any kind of production and we are always looking for volunteers. Past experience isn't important. A sense of fun and dedication does. Please consider volunteering for one of the many positions we need help with. Call Dave at (502) 226-2477, or Terry Mullins at 252-2867 days.

DIVERSITY FILMS

For Pride Month, Diversity Films will show Changing Our Minds: The Story of Dr. Evelyn Hooker and a number of short experimental films by Barbara Hammer. Join us in the Central Library Theater on Saturday afternoon, June 3 at 2 pm. No charge

In the 1950's Dr. Evelyn Hooker undertook ground breaking research to prove that homosexuals were not "sick" and did not belong in the DSM as a mental illness. The director, Richard Schmiechen, also directed The Life and Times of Harvey Milk for which he won the Academy Award. Schmiechen vividly portrays the life and work of this woman described by the Los Angeles Times as "The Rosa Parks of Gay Rights."

Startling archival footage of medical procedures used to "cure" homosexuality, images from the underground gay world of the McCarthy era, and "home movies" from that time period bring to life a part of our history. Dr. Hooker's work to educate her fellow psychiatrists included the concepts of "gay marriage" and "gay community" (a term she coined.) Her pioneering work and vision culminated in the American Psychiatric Association removing homosexuality from its manual of mental disorder in 1974. This film won the Best Documentary in the 1992 San Francisco International Lesbian and Gay Film Festival and was nominated for an Academy Award.

We will also be showing several short experimental films by Barbara Hammer. The History of the World According to a Lesbian traces the invisible and visible reference to women who ...continued page 7 love women from prehistory to contemporary times with the sarcastic sounds of the '50's lesbian quartet, "The Sluts from Hell."

In Hot Flash a menopausal woman and her lover join Hot Flash, the society for older women. Grey-Hairs are favored in this funny take on growing older. No No Nooky T.V. explores the impact of technology on sexuality, emotion, and self image. Computer language is juxtaposed with the everyday colloquial language of sexuality in a witty and playful way. The final short, Two Bad Girls, is rumored to be about some of those strange characters Reinette writes about, but we don't promise. One of these shorts will also be shown at the U.U. Church on Thursday, June 1.

The Humanitarian: Center for Culture & Diversity is the primary sponsor of Diversity Films. Ebony Male, GLSO, and the Unitarian Universalist Church also contributed financial support for this event.

Interweave

Thursday Night Videos

On every Thursday evening in June, Interweave will be showing videos at the Unitarian Church. We will be in the main building in the middle school classroom, unless we get enough people to move out into the larger Fellowship Hall.

On Thursday, June 1 When Night Is Falling (1995). Patricia Rozema directed this sensual romantic sleeper set in Canada in which Camille, a theology professor, finds herself attracted to Petra, a circus performer. Camille struggles with her growing feelings for Petra while confronting her religious values. (Rated R) We also plan to show one of the best of the short experimental film by Barbara Hammer.

On Thursday, June 8 - Torch Song Trilogy (1988). Harvey Fierstein, Anne Bancroft and Matthew Broderick star in this film adaptation of the Broadway comedy/drama hit. The film tells the story of a professional drag queen, played by Fierstein and his trouble with relationships. (Rated R)

On Thursday, June 15 Gia (1998) Angelina Jolie stars as the title character in this acclaimed, erotic HBO biopic based upon the life of Gia Carangi, whom many consider the first supermodel. Although the film focuses upon Gia's rise to fame and fall due to drug addiction, her turbulent lesbian relationship with a make-up artist is central to the story. Mercedes Reuhl and Faye Dunaway also star. (Unrated)

On Thursday, June 22 Get Real (1998) Fans of Beautiful Thing will enjoy this touching and well-acted coming-of-age story about a high school boy's relationship with a closeted track star. An English movie that has not been on the big screen in Lexington. (Rated R)

Thursday, June 29 - The Life and Times of Harvey Milk. This documentary chronicles an important piece of gay and lesbian history. Harvey Milk was the first openly gay politician to be elected to public office as a councilman in San Francisco. His political career ended abruptly when he was assassinated by fellow councilman Dan White. The director Richard Schmiechen also directed Changing Our Minds which will be shown downtown on Sat. June 3. Harvey Milk is an Academy Award winning film and is worth seeing more than once.

Discussions will follow each film. Join us for a family evening of good movies and good talk.

The Kentucky Theater will feature two movies of interest to our community during Pride Month. Beef Cake, at present scheduled for June 2 through 8, tells the story of Bob Mizner who published Physique Magazine from the 1950's to the 1990's. This quasi documentary is in part a retrospective tribute to Mizner's work. Interviews with individuals who were featured in his magazine, some of whom later became famous, are featured.

The Physique archives now contain the largest collection a male nudes in the world. Many of the photographs from the magazine are used in the movie. Some are even animated, providing a campy comedic flavor to the film.

Better Than Chocolate is scheduled to run from June 9 to 15. In this sexy romantic film Maggie meets Kim, her ideal lover, just hours before her neurotic mother and brother unexpectedly move in with her. Interesting characters and plot twists abound.

We need to support these films in order to make it financially possible to get more LGBT Films at the Kentucky. Fred may have to hold a movie in a theater if it is getting good audiences so the dates of these movies are only the best estimate. Check the newspaper for times and for confirmation of these dates.

Pride Alliance

A few of us here in Danville have started a new Gay Lesbian organization called Pride Alliance of Central Kentucky (PACK). The Alliance will serve as an advocacy, educational, social, and support group for gay men, lesbians, bisexuals, transgendered individuals, and their friends, family, and supporters in the greater Danville/Boyle County community.

PACK will maintain the confidentiality of its members. We welcome everyone regardless of race, ethnic background, religious affiliation, marital status, familial status, nation of origin, personal abilities, sexual orientation, or political affiliation. Call Gary (859-236-4547), or Shane (859-854-0596), or email us at pridealliance@yahoo.com.

Discussion Group

The GLSO Discussion/Support Group is now meeting from 7-9 pm every Wednesday. The Group is open to anyone 18 or older. We share our experiences, listen to each other, and provide support and encouragement. If you could use a place to "be yourself" for a couple of hours a week, come join us. We hope to be meeting at the new location of the pride center soon. But for now, call Jane for location and other information. (389-7698)

Spouse Abuse Center

Outreach to LBGT Community

The YWCA Spouse Abuse Center helps all victims of domestic violence. This includes members of our community. The spouse abuse center has started a gay men's support group and plans to start a group for women involved in same sex abusive relationships.

These groups will discuss what domestic violence is and the effects it has had on our lives. We know that because this is often seen as a heterosexual woman's issue that it can be difficult to reach out for help. We encourage any LBGT person who is or was, -or even thinks they might be involved in a abusive relationship to give us a call and consider joining one of these group. Call the YWCA Spouse Abuse center and ask for Letonia. (255-9808) All calls are confidential.

Support Group

The Bluegrass Rape Crisis Center is offering a ten week support group for survivors of rape beginning in June. There is no fee for this group. Please contact Jennifer Hancock at 253-2615 for more information.

"THIS ONE IS FOR THE FAT GIRLS"

Attention all women of size. Chrysalis House, a non-profit halfway house for women in substance abuse recovery, needs clothing. If you have previously worn clothing (especially size 12 and larger) in good condition that you are planning to get rid of, please consider donating it to the Chrysalis House. The clients are always in need of professional and casual clothing in larger sizes. Call the Chrysalis House at (859) 255-0500 to arrange a date and time to drop off your donation.

Black Lesbian

Collective Forming

Sistahs in the Life is a newly forming social/support collective for Lesbians of African Descent. We meet biweekly. All black women ages 19 and older are welcome to join. The major objective is to identify a community of black women and bring us to the same space at the same time. Participants will determine the direction of the collective beyond that.

We understand that there are degrees of "outness"; participation is confidential and all efforts will be made to create a safe space for everyone. Don't sleep Sistahs. We've been expressing a need for this for years. Now is the time! For information, call LeTonia 233-3751, or Joan 252-2657.

CUPPS

The local chapter of the Covenant of Unitarian Universalist Pagans (CUUPS) is a part of the U. U. Church of Lexington. On July 1 we will be sponsoring a day-long Pagan gathering at the church from 11 AM to 8 PM in honor of the New Moon on that day.

This will be a picnic with Morris dancers, a plant walk, rituals and workshops, and maybe a band as well! Merchants are more than welcome; we ask only that you donate a prize. The admission fee is a suggested donation of $5 per individual over the age of 12; this will go to our church. Folks will need to bring their own food, cutlery etc. Small grills are fine if you want to grill some burgers, etc. Please also bring a covered dish for the potluck!

We invite all Pagans and others with an interest in Earth-centered spirituality to come join us. Registration will be on-site. Please, no alcohol or pets. Youth under 18 must bring a parent or legal guardian to sign their waver.

Anybody Remember James Bowadinger?

By Reinette F. Jones

James Bowadinger was in town for a few days. Some of you may remember her from years ago when James had a hole in the wall restaurant (her house kitchen) down on Peter Pan Alley off of Jefferson Street. The city and Urban Renewal redistricted the entire neighborhood in the late 60s. Property owners and renters got money to move because of development. James took her money and put it in a franchise with a company in Iowa.

She was back here visiting the old neighborhood. James still likes to go by the area and talk about the good old days when the house specialty was her chicken cheese. Half of her customers actually believed James when she said that the cheese was made from chicken breast milk. She had this tale about milking her chickens before the sun came up because that was when the milk was most bountiful, and early milking was suppose to keep the flesh tender for the dinner menu. There is no telling what James put in that cheese, but she must have sold two tons of the stuff. She is still a mighty fine cook.

Not much has changed about James over the years, there are a few more wrinkles, more gray hair, and bifocals. She still wears those Brooks Brothers shirts with the collar buttoned up. Her cockroach killer boots are well polished and the toe tip is still sharp enough to takeout a bug in any corner of the room.

There's not much that can compare to the sight of size 10, calf-high, black cowboy boots in a plastic bag on the pillow beside the sleeping woman who wears them. James says that she likes to sleep with her boots when she is away from home, because a close friend stole one of them way back when and she never got her boot back and she lost a friend as well. She didn't call any names, but she did say that you would probably be reading this.

Anybody seen a woman stomping around with one size 10 boot lately? If so, please tell her that James said that she is willing to bring closure to the dispute if the boot is returned. She still has the mate. That James, she does things like that, keeping one boot all this time.

Does anybody remember the time that the Army sent two guys to pick James up for dodging the draft? And James ducked out the back of her kitchen with one of the guys chasing her through the alley. She took a shortcut through Berta Mae's shotgun house and lost the guy. The she circled around the block, back down the alley to the front of her house and she was buck-naked. She climbed on top of the Army guys' car and started sing 'Hot Damn! I'm a man in the Army now.' And one of the guys tried to pull her off the car and James fell/jumped on him and knocked the wind out of the guy.

Then Dr. Maudie rubbed some of her hip joint salve up under the guy's nose to bring him around. She made James put her clothes back on and she told the guy to get on up off the ground because he wasn't dead yet. Both of the guys were embarrassed for all the trouble they had gone through to find out that James Bowadinger III was a woman. Nobody told them that Dr. Maudie was an undertaker and not a real doctor. Those guys never did come back to town and James never got another letter from the Army, but she did keep all the letters that had come before that day

But all of that was a long time ago. James says to tell everyone hello, and her company in Iowa is still turning a pretty good profit. Berta Mae is doing fine too. Both of them are working with a historian who is researching the Peter Pan Alley neighborhood. Some of you may be contacted if you or some of your family lived in the area between 1900 and the 1960s. James will appreciate any information that you can provide, and getting that boot back would nice too. But don't pull anybody's leg for it.

You Have to Learn to Crawl Before You Can Dance With the Big Boys by Lori Shepherd

When my partner and I first moved to Lexington four years ago we were both still learning how to crawl out of the closet and into a GLBT community. Admittedly that journey has not been without its pitfalls. We look back at ourselves then and at ourselves now, shaking our heads in amazement.

One of the most memorable of those pitfalls came the first summer we were here. Having yet to experience any of Lexington's "family" entertainment, we set out one warm summer evening in search of the only alternative club that we had heard of in town.

After a few unsuccessful trips down the same street looking for this club we were about to give up and head home, when we saw two guys who sent our gaydar into overload. Feeling adventurous we decided just to follow them. Sure enough just a few doors down from where we were they opened an unmarked door and the sounds of techno-pop filled the air - we knew we were in the right place.

When in Rome...we followed them in, paid the man at the door and pushed our way through the crowd to the bar. While I waited for my drink I started to feel a little like the proverbial bastard at the family reunion. People were starting to nudge and poke each other and actually point.

And when the music stopped and the dancer on stage up front gave us a sideways look I really felt out of place. It was obvious that a few of my gay brothers were not impressed with the two femmes who had come to share their party.

As my partner pressed my drink in my hand I said, "I think we are in the wrong place." She said that was probably true but that we weren't leaving until we finished our drinks. I agreed and ten seconds later handed her back my empty glass and headed for the door. Back at the door I asked the guy taking the money why he hadn't warned us that this was an all-male bar and he just shrugged, "Lots of straight girls come in to see the show."

He graciously gave us back the money we had paid for our cover and pointed us in the direction of a more mixed crowd. I made a mental note to get a haircut and that was our first and last trip to Crossings.

That night always reminds us of the scene from Police Academy when they go into the Blue Oyster bar and the music stops and everyone stares, but it always makes us laugh at ourselves. And lately it has taught me just how far she and I have come together and individually.

Then I was straight off the farm and from one of the straightest parts of Kentucky. She, being from Louisville, was adjusting to the joys of a smaller community and the lack of privacy that comes with it. Now with a better understanding of where the bars are as well as the churches, the pride center and a diverse and growing group of friends we no longer find it necessary to follow men we don't know into bars we've never been to before.

I feel blessed. Blessed to have met so many people in this community, maybe even a few familiar faces from Crossings that night. Blessed to have picked up my first copy of the GLSO, which led us to a church community and introduced us to organizations and individuals of which we had never heard.

Due to an illness in my family I will spend much of pride month in Western Kentucky with my family of birth but I will take along my copy of the GLSO Newsletter so that I can keep up with what my Lexington family is doing while I am gone.

Entertainer of the Year 2000

"The Bluegrass Regional Entertainer of the Year" 2000-Y2K/Hairspray will be held Sun., June 18, in the Grand Ballroom of the Radisson Hotel, 369 W. Vine, Lex. Featured guests will include reigning "National E.O.Y.", the sultry Stephanie Bofill, the reigning Bluegrass Regional E.O.Y., the dance diva Syimone, and a special guest appearance by the "goddess of the islands", Reginne Phillips.

Also appearing will be the naughty Natalie Gay, your hostess mc's- the fabled Mahogany and the outrageous Ginger Grant. (There could be a couple of surprise out of town guests as well!)

Contestants vying for the title of Bluegrass Regional E.O.Y. will compete in the categories of presentation, talent, evening wear, and on stage question, with prizes awarded totalling over 800 in cash and other items. With our intriguing and unique combination of contestant and professional talent, this promises to be one of the most entertaining evenings presented for the enjoyment of Kentucky's impersonation lovers for this summer.

Advanced tickets ($10, and discounted for tables of 10) are encouraged, as last year's "Bluegrass E.O.Y." preliminary was an at-capacity crowd. Tickets may be reserved by calling Donnie Royse, Bluegrass E.O.Y. promoter at 321-2053 or by accessing our website, www.evproductions.com. Any tickets remaining will be available at door for $12. Doors will open at 8 p.m. Applications and information can be obtained by contacting the promoter or on the website.

CURRENT SCHEDULE (Titles subject to change):

Thursday, June 1 at 7:00PM – WHEN NIGHT IS FALLING (1995)

Patricia Rozema directed this sensual romantic sleeper set in Canada in which Camille, a theology professor, finds herself attracted to Petra, a circus performer. Camille struggles with her growing feelings for Petra while confronting her religious values. (Rated R)

Thursday, June 8 at 7:00PM – TORCH SONG TRILOGY (1988)

Harvey Fierstein, Anne Bancroft and Matthew Broderick star in this film adaptation of the Broadway comedy/drama hit. The film tells the story of a professional drag queen, who just wants to settle down with a man and have a family. This film touches on several important issues including adoption by gays, family relationships and gay bashing. (Rated R)

Thursday, June 15 at 7:30PM – GIA (1998)

Angelina Jolie stars as the title character in this acclaimed, erotic HBO biopic based upon the life of Gia Carangi, whom many consider the first super-model. Although the film focuses upon Gia's rise to fame and fall due to drug addiction, her turbulent lesbian relationship with a make-up artist is central to the story. Mercedes Reuhl and Faye Dunaway also star. (Unrated)

Thursday, June 22 at 7:00PM – GET REAL (1998)

Fans of Beautiful Thing will enjoy this touching and well-acted coming-of-age story about a high school boy's relationship with a closeted track star. (Rated R)

Thursday, June 29 at 7:00PM – LIFE & TIMES OF HARVEY MILK

This award-winning documentary chronicles important events in gay and lesbian history. Harvey Milk was the first openly gay politician to be elected to public office as a councilman in San Francisco. His political career ended abruptly when he was assassinated by fellow councilman Dan White. This is a film worth seeing again and again. (Unrated)
