ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Faculty book display and reception slated:

A display of U K faculty recent publications and a reception for the faculty is being planned for 9 April in the Department of Special Collections. Librarians (in particular, branch librarians and liaisons) who know of major works (monographs, translations, and contributions to monographs) published since 1975 are requested to contact Terry Warth in Special Collections. The reception will be hosted by the Library Staff Organization.

Administrative Services news:

During the week of 14-18 March, (Spring break), the normal afternoon truck run schedule will be reduced to 3 runs. The runs will be on Monday, Wednesday and Friday only.

ACTS Meeting scheduled:

There will be a special meeting of ACTS Monday, 7 March, at 9:30 AM in the Gallery. Paul Willis and Faith Harders will attend and explain the method used for implementing raises effective July 1. Please bring your latest ACTS report and any questions you may have.

Library Staff Organizations minutes:

A short business meeting was held at 3:15 PM, February 25, prior to the program which placed emphasis on getting to know the people within the various departments of the library system. The Department heads announced and introduced new members of the staff which totaled 29; then each Department head briefly described the function of his/her unit.

New in GPD:

A recent acquisition of note is the Cumulative Index to The Annual Catalogues of Her Majesty's Stationery Office Publications 1922-1972, call number GPD 015.41/B5666c. Billed as "a single source of bibliographic access to 51 years of British government documents," it covers both Parliamentary and non-Parliamentary publications.
