

Salem, N. C.

Feb: 5th 1858.

Mrs. Johnson:—
Your letter of the
— of December 1857, was duly recd.
And permit me, here, to offer
to you my thanks, for your consent to contribute to my Magazine.

Will you grant me the privilege
and pleasure of placing the name of "Mrs. Rosa Verlie Johnson" in my list of contributors?

I desire the impress of the prominent writers—both male and female—of the South, that my Magazine may be established upon a firm basis.

The name which you bear, wms, & Madam, aid me very much in my enterprise—my Magazine.

My Magazine has been delayed, unavoidably, but will be issued in a few days, when I shall be pleased to send to you a copy.

Very Respectfully—

A. J. Hedman.
