However, Students Vote To Defend Country If It Is Invaded

65,000 BALLOTS ARE SENT IN BY STUDENTS

Entrance of U. S. Into the League Is Closely Contested

Latest returns in the Literary Digest-A.C.E. poll, 65,000 ballots from 60 American colleges, indicate a decidedly pacifistic viewpoint, with sizeable majorities on all questions except "Should the U. S. enter the League?" which has an almost equal number of "yesses" and "nos."

The majority of University of Kentucky students were opposed to entering the League, 434 votes being cast against entrance, and 386 in favor of entering.

On the other questions, Kentucky voted as follows: Can the U. S. stay out of another great war? 608 "Yes," 222 "No"; Would you bear arms if the borders of your country were invaded? 187 "Yes," 83 "No"; Would you bear arms if your country were the invader? 193 "Yes," 65 "No"; Do you believe that an American navy and air force second to none is a sound method of insuring the country against another war? 405 "Yes," 187 "No"; Are you in favor of Government control of munitions? 768 "Yes," 63 "No"; Would you be in favor of universal conscription if war should occur? 688 "Yes," 140 "No."

Analysis of the total current returns show the following ratios: 68.31 per cent believe that the U. S. can stay out of another great war; 83.50 per cent would fight if this country were invaded; 81.83 per cent would not fight in the invasion of the borders of another country; 62.98 per cent do not believe that an American navy and air force second to none is a sound method of insuring peace; 80.25 per cent advocate governmental control of munitions and armament industries; 81.58 per cent favor universal conscription of all young men, women and labor in order to take all profit out of war.

WILDCATS WILL MEET 'BAMA AT BIRMINGHAM TONIGHT; TO PLAY VANDERBILT SATURDAY

Kentucky's Wildcats, fresh from three straight triumphs during the holidays, entrained yesterday morning for Birmingham, Alabama, where they clash with the University of Alabama Crimson Tide tonight.

The Commodore team will move up to Nashville, Tennessee, to meet Vanderbilt's Commodores.

Coach Paul McBrayer will be the favorites in both encounters, although they may be harder pressed than they were at the home court.

The Commodore team has shown flashes of brilliance in several of their performances this season and will be primed to knock the Wildcat team from its top berth in the conference.

Vanderbilt, holding close decision over Alabama, will be even harder for the Cats, because of its ability and fast back line. Kentucky team will be forced to play on successive nights and after a long and tiring trip.

The Commodore team is at present in a tie with Kentucky for the conference leadership. During the holidays, the Cats dispersed to their homes for the winter, but the Vols of Tennessee were gradually holding close decision over Alabama, will be even harder for the Cats, because of its ability and fast back line.

Kittens Journey To Georgetown Saturday Night

Demoisey's Grayson High Team To Meet Frosh On February 15

Coach Paul McBrayer's freshman basketball team will go into action tonight in a game with Georgetown.

The Kittens still have a clean slate as far as games lost are concerned and should continue their upward climb at the expense of the South county lads.

The past week Coach McBrayer sent his charges against three opponents and each time came out of the scrap with the long end of the rope. The Wildcats, Monday night, in a game preliminary to the Kentucky-Tennessee tussle, the Kittens downed the Louisville Manual cagers by a two-digit margin.

Tuesday night and Cumberland college of Williamsburg on Wednesday night. They were victorious in both encounters, defeating Sun Bennett by 48-18, and Cumberland by 58-26.

Bill Spicer, ace forward of the frosh squad, did not make the trip because of illness. "Red" Hagan, former St. Xavier high star, was the outstanding man of both games, scoring 15 points in each one.

Other dates which have been filled on the frosh schedule as an inter-collegiate trial playing in school team, coached by a former Wildcat, John "Frenchy" DeMoosey, February 18 the Kittens will take a two-day trip to play at the college on February 18, and Williamson, W. Va., high on the following day.

Members to the conference will purpose to change the annual meeting from February to December for the next year.

Organization members also wish to propose a track meet on the final Friday and Saturday of May; it is also desired to make Southeastern conference teams play at least four games with conference members, and they would like to start a tournament in tennis and boxing as well as basketball.

The Southeastern Conference was formed two years ago when three schools withdrew from the Southern conference because it was too large. ### NEW SOCIOLOGY COURSE OFFERED

Miss Eva Buckingham To Be Instructor For New Face of Social Service Work; Practicality of Course Cited

Announcement has been made by the Department of Sociology of the University that the new course recently established and known as "Supervised Field Work" is to be started with the beginning of the second semester, or early in February.

This course is to be under the direction of Miss Eva Buckingham, the new executive secretary of the Family Welfare society of Lexington. The course is parallel with the course in social case work, which will be given in the Family Service organization of Louisville. The latter course is a prerequisite to the former.

With the introduction of these new courses, the Department of Sociology is now regarded as well on its way towards the conduct of training courses in social work which will meet the standards of national professional bodies. The courses are open both to persons who are interested only in some degree of professional training for their work, and to persons who wish in addition to secure academic credit therefor.

TOTAL OF 2,483 WERE ENROLLED IN THREE DAYS

Figures Exceed by 266 the Number Enrolled Last Semester of 1934

LATE REGISTRATION FEES NOW IN EFFECT

February 11 Is the Last Day On Which Students May Change Classes

A total of 2,483 freshmen and upperclassmen had registered in the University by the close of the third day of registration, yesterday afternoon, according to figures released by the registrar's office.

This total exceeds by 266 the number enrolled at the end of the third day last year which was 2,217. Final enrollment for the first semester 1934-35 was 2,823 which was a substantial increase over the total registration in 1933.

A special effort was made this semester to improve the method of registration in order to lessen the time required to register each student, and a special committee headed by the registrar has been working on new plans for some time. This year, for the first time, the business office employed two staffs of workers and as a result the registration line moved along at a quicker pace. A total of 1,612 were registered the first day as a result of this improvement.

A late registration fee of $1 per week went into effect yesterday. Monday, Feb. 11, will be the last day on which a subject may be dropped without a grade by permission of the Dean. Students who were not in school the first semester and who wish to file application for a degree may do so on Monday, February 18.

times is the pretension that there is a vast plot directed by the Communist Party to some how "boycott from within" and "destroy the universities." This is never made very clear, because the social purpose of the university is not very clear.

IMPARTIALITY

At the close of the scholastic year 1933-34, the University agreed to aid the various social fraternities in collecting delinquent accounts of students still in school.

One week before the examinations started for the last semester, Dean Jones asked for a list of the members of the fraternities who were financially in arrears.

It is hoped that neither the fraternities nor the University authorities will permit this to come to pass. It is not fair to those who were made to pay their bills under the same threat, or to their lodges in general.

FIRST RETURNS

Although at this time the results of only 65,000 of the 325,000 ballots mailed to college students in the Literary Digest-A-C-E "peace" polls have been compiled, these early returns may be taken as an index to what the final results of the poll will indicate.

These first returns indicate a one-sided vote on every question except whether or not the U. S. should enter the League of Nations with the "Yes" side having a slight edge.

AN AMERICAN YOUTH MOVEMENT

During his talk at Convocation recently Dr. George F. Zook, former United States Commissioner of Education, hinted at the development of a real American Youth Movement.

Greetings and salutations my fine friends! We welcome back into our midst this semester Miss Elizabeth Marron, fresh from the alligator state; KA H. V. Bastin; and Phil Del Joe Arvin, H. V. tells some mighty interesting stories about "them Hooster gals," and Joe's talk on the subject of why he left school is very funny.

It would be almost unappreciative to let the subject of registration go without commenting on the improvement we've noticed this semester. It used to be, back in the old days, that one registered fully equipped with several pens, a couple of ink, and a couple of pencils.

Herein resides the salvation of our democracy as Dr. Zook so aptly pointed out. The movement in America is a seemingly heterogeneous array of groups all interested in furthering the cause of the tenets to which they adhere.

Obviously this movement is not made up of all the students in our universities - intellectual pursuits never retain the interest of that majority of "degree seekers" who choose so much to degrade the opinion of our system of higher education.

MAKERS OF WAR

Among the most heartening of recent Washington developments was President Roosevelt's assurance of his continued support of the investigation by the senate munitions committee, which will resume its hearings this month, additional funds having been made available for the purpose.

The record up to the present time is illuminating. It shows that British and American firms divided the world markets for submarines and war explosives, shared profits, exchanged secret inventions and processes; that American patents helped German U-boats prey more effectively on our merchant marine during the World War; that an American process for manufacturing powder was sold to Japan at a time when American-Japanese relations were strained over the Manchurian incident; that American bullets were being fired from both Bolivian and Paraguayan guns while American diplomats worked for peace in the Iran-Chaco.

That tumble-down house is the center of thought For many joys that the years have brought;

Kind thoughts of playmates of long, long ago, The joy of whose memories no one can know;

For that little old house 'neath the gnarled tree Holds a storehouse of pleasure in memories for me.

A WISH Oftimes when the moonlight is streaming Through the window open by my bed,

When the cool night breezes whisper And the earth seems silently dead.

When the crickets have ceased their calling, And a crimson rose in bloom, Breathes out in the hovering darkness Its hauntingly rare perfume.

The solution to last week's cryptograph is: Crossword containing "Excesses" suggests word to intrinsically cryptogrammatic. Or do we err?

CAMPUS PERSONALITIES
By CAPEL McNASH

Willie Hughes Smith, known to all his friends as "Smily," was born right here in Lexington in 1913, and can't quite understand where folks got her very original first name.

She honors she has received are many and varied, with more to come. I have heard Smily is the Society Editor of the Kernel, a K.D.P. Phi Theta, Chi Delta Phi, Kappa Delta Phi, and by Monday will be a Theta Sigma Phi. Also she sings in the Glee Club and is a member of Mortar Board. Her average standing is 2.7, which makes her a senior in very good standing.

She likes books and pies with chocolate in them—not the books, the pies. She is fond of dancing and swimming, and in the summer likes to camp and picnic down by the river. She visits in Virginia, and thinks it is a very fine state, but naturally "Willie" loyally prefers Kentucky.

Smily doesn't like to walk—especially on these muddy days the University tolerates. She is an ardent pacifist, fast driving frightens her, and she is sure she is afraid of snakes, but never has come near enough to one to find out—and doesn't intend to.

Smily's most immediate ambition is a job in June—preferably library work. Her most embarrassing moment occurred when she said "Yes, please" to a gentleman official of the University.

"Willie" says she would like to ride horses, but can't because of her hay fever—my goodness.

She admires friendly people, especially an ex-marriage editor of the Kernel named Frank who has brown hair and eyes—can you guess who?

Part-Time Work Secured by Co-eds

Nine University of Kentucky women have been able to secure the work they needed in order to finance their education in the University for the spring semester, as a result of pleas voted in news articles and want ads.

There are many girls on the campus who will be unable to continue their studies in school unless Miss Lella Rookh Goodson has left for a visit with friends at Daytona Beach, Florida.

Miss Marjorie Anderson and Edith Reager visited in Louisville between semesters.

Miss Kappy Wadde was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Horsman, Winchester, last week.

Miss Sue Swinford will leave next week to enter Ward-Behmont school in Nashville.

Mr. Ben Taylor spent the weekend in Louisville.

Mr. "Bo" Gibson, Corbin, is a guest of Mr. Richard Spores at the Alpha Sigma Phi house.

Mr. Morton Holbrook, Alpha Sigma Phi, is going to Washington, D. C. to take a government position. He has been awarded a scholarship.

Mr. Omer Heacock has been elected president of Alpha Sigma Phi to succeed Morton Holbrook.

Epsilon Phi Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha announced the pledging of Messrs. Cliff Collins, William Gettall, and Bill Crady, Sigma Chi, have been in Florida for the last week.

Among those from the Sigma Chi house who went home between semesters were Messrs. Erwin Feber, William Boland, and William Dawson, Fort Thomas; Winfrey Buntun, Louisville; James Earle Chester, Russell; Frank Coffey, Bruce Phillips, and David Hale, Monticello; Edward Alcorn, Hustonville; Charles Ryan, Lawrenceburg; Robert Stevenson, William Reid, and Sam Kennedy, Somerset.

Mr. Arthur James, Pittsburgh, Pa., has been a guest for the past week at the Sigma Chi house.

Theta of Kappa Alpha announces the election of Mr. John Breckinridge as president.

Mr. Chris Grinstead, Kappa Alpha, was a recent visitor in Glasgow.

Pi Kappa Alpha announces the pledging of Messrs. William Gorman, Lexington, and Henry F. Warren, Sebree.

Messrs. Tom Dawson, Woody Pardo, and Mal Forden, Sigma Phi Epsilon, visited in Louisville between semesters.

Geology Museum Receives Another Unusual Donation

An unusual collection of wood-opal specimens has just been received by the Museum of Geology, according to information received from David M. Young, curator of the museum. Forty specimens comprise the suite which illustrates each stage of alteration from petrified wood to the finest quality of gem opal. These specimens were obtained from the Rainbow Ridge Opal Mine, Virgin Valley, Nevada.

When placed on display the opals will be exhibited both as polished and cut stones as well as in the rough. Colors of the specimens range from white to jet black, and include a number of "fire" opals.

Another recent acquisition by the museum is a collection of 20 species of fossil leaves and winged seeds from the Miocene of southeastern Oregon. Included in the group are specimens of maple, birch, walnut, oak, cedar and willow leaves, as well as pine cones, acorns, all of which were imprinted in their accompanying sediments millions of years ago.

"Monk" Simons, Tulane's ace footballer, provided a colorful performance for the Green Wave's otherwise mediocre basketball team on their appearance in Lexington two weeks ago.

"I don't know yet where they are going to do," he replied to a question regarding his future. "It's either going to be coaching of professional football. My old coach didn't want me to play professional so I'll probably go to school another year for a master's and then coach."

"I Kentucky took as much interest in football as they do in basketball they would have as good a team in both," was his idea to the basketball situation here. Whether he was right or wrong is disputable.

When he isn't there they start to work but when he gets back he runs everything his own way again. Jones was a good coach at L.S.U. Mickal is a better passer than ball-carrier. Johnson is a mighty good ball-carrier.

Then he went on to talk of Tulane prospects. "Tulane will have a better team next year. We had some freshmen linemen better than the varsity. Especially the tackles. They'll have to change some of the varsity tackles to guards to make way for the freshmen."

As to Zimmerman, the Tulane All-American was happily married and working for some big company.

One of the listeners mentioned that George Tech was supposed to have the best freshman team in the country last fall but Monk was ignorant of that and only said "They would have to go some to beat Tulane's new crop."

He remembered the Tulane game of three seasons ago when Tulane won 6 to 3, and he was glad to see now a couple of southerners, Kelly and Kercheval were doing in pro ranks.

Monk said he was looking forward to the Kentucky game in New Orleans this fall when a few Kentucky

tucky belles began to gather about the a hie. Things were going along to his satisfaction when he was forced to leave the "Cob coach," were his last words as he was sternly ushered into the players' "I almost got in a date when you had to come along."
