

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pretlow
Ernst announce the marriage of their sister,
Ellen Brent,

to

Mr. William McDowell Bent, on Saturday, June the twenty-ninth, Covington, Kentucky.

Extreme simplicity prompted by exquisite taste was carried out in all details of the wedding of Miss Brent and Mr. Bent. On account of the recent bereavement in the bride's family no invitations were issued, and the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. J. I. Blackburn, was witnessed by the family circle only. The bride wore a stunning tailor gown of white cloth, trimmed in stitched bands of dull white silk. Miss Brent is a young woman of most attractive individuality, and has been a great belle. Combined with great beauty of person is that rarer gift, beauty of character, and a world of tenderest wishes from many friends blessed the bridal of "Nell Brent," as she is lovingly called. Mr. and Mrs. Bent left Saturday evening for Canada, where they will remain until they sail from New York on the Servia, on July 9. Mr. Bent holds a position of trust with the Standard Oil Company, and is in all ways worthy of his charming bride.
