

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1826 by H.R. Robinson in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

I have wished the good opinion of the world but I defy the most malignant of my enemies to show that I have attempted to gain it by any low or grovelling acts by any mean or unworthy sacrifice by the violation of any of the obligations of honor or by a breach of any of the duties which I owed to my country.
