

Wash. 25. Dec. 1831

Dear Henry.

Enclosed I send a letter addressed to you.

I have received a letter from Anne, and am happy to find that she writes in her usual good spirits. She tells me of Mr. Duvaldes' friendly offer that you should reside with him. On that point, you will be the best judge. You will find a residence with him loanome, but it may be favorable to diligent study. But consult exclusively your own feelings.

Mr. Erwin will supply you with money, and get the draft I gave you discounted if necessary.

Make my respects to Judge Porter and Mr. Easter.

Your aff^{le} father

H. Clay
