

d of direction to make a few in second university. Although which I have been labouring and to the change of residence by of Council have left me but aration still I could not consent feelings to forgo the earliest with you in the most noble cause of the tribute of my homage to the and the commercial integrity of the of a public library can never be or lover of his country without prof-est is depicted in the present instance the midst of which this I was commenced understand by a number of private indivand was founded in 1841. As you period of extraordinary sufferings commercial classes - a period of Res-treat. At such a moment the isette, to its immortal honour, nd ingenious young men devoted nurce laid the foundation of this A commendable act of public spirit gives which will inevitably flow the private individuals corporations spring from good faith and covering