My dear Mr. Bulllock,

After much delay, I am sending the kodak pictures I took of the old clay house here.
I tried to get some of the details I thought would interest you. The city has condemned the building which is now the outing home of a Catholic Order.
I am sorry we have had so little regard as to fail to preserve it.

I owe you a great deal for having taken me through Clair's home. My kodak picture is fine. Again I thank you for your courtesies to me, an utter stranger.

Yours truly,
Julie Koch
