

My dear Henry

Washington 27th June 1850

I send you, according to my promise in my former letter, a check on N. York for $75, of which you will retain $25. for your personal expenses, and place the other fifty in deposit to your credit at the Point. Perhaps you had better consult with May<sup>r</sup> Glover as to the mode of transacting the business, if you feel any difficulty about it.
