

Louisville Dec. 13th 1852

Mon. Chire Henry

As I have not written to you since we returned from Lexington, I will do it now. I tried to persuade Tommy to write to you yesterday, but he would not until I had exacted a promise from you to answer him if ~~you~~ would write the first letter. Do not forget that you owe me one, and if you do not answer it directly I am afraid you will get back into your old habits. I had a delightful visit to Lexington, as I always do, I saw Grandma and although she does not look well she said she was ~~pretty well~~. I did not see her very often as three of the days we were there, the weather was very
