

Hartford Aug. 5. 1884

My Dear Mrs Clay

I have been thinking a great deal about the Colony, indeed about I call my mind has been on you, for I have been writing in a rambling fashion about the Old Iron country, not saying however, anything I would like to say about the people there & whom I am so fond I think however the public will