My Dear Miss Clay

I can write you only a word of thanks for your welcome kind letter and for the N.Y. Times notice, which I had not seen. For over six weeks now I have been forbidden by the doctor to use my eyes - nothing serious, except that they must have rest. I have not seen the Chicago World.

I am very grateful for your good opinion. I think often of you and the good friends - Dixie & Co., and wish you all manner of happiness Ever sincerely yours
Chas. Dudley Warner
