

James H. Co.

Dear Harry

Your Sister and I send these Xmas Cards, (a greeting from home) to the brave band of officers and men who are now in the midst of the long and dreary night of the Arctic winter. May these bright little cards bring cheer and comfort to you and your associates in perils and hardships, and may they remind you that in your native land thousands of miles away, loving hearts will have you in remembrance on this glad anniversary, and many a prayer ^{will} ascend to God for blessings on you.

God give you His Holy Spirit my darling and bless you, bless you, bless you. And in the "house of God" which
