RESOLUTIONS

Just at the dawn of another day the spirit of Lucretia Hart Clay passed "over the river to rest in the shade of the trees." One by one they go—the splendid women of a noble race, leaving their light upon the paths of others. In the death of Miss Clay, the Humane Society of Lexington and Fayette county realizes that it has lost one of its most beloved officers; one whose kindly council, great sympathy and generosity were given unstintedly, and whose presence at all times was benediction to the officers of the society.

To Miss Clay's family, to her devoted brothers, whose close companionship thru life was so beautiful, the Humane Society wishes to tender the assurance of sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Be it resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, a copy be spread upon the minutes of this society and a copy sent to each of the daily newspapers.

"Sallie G. H. Chenault, chairman; Dr. W. B. McClure, Elizabeth Daingerfield, committee."

So Graciously Arranged

"This room is fragrant; here she laid
Her finger-tips, there paused and made
The shadows glow with light, and spent

A certain sweetness that is lent
To souls so graciously arrayed."

This is the thought which comes to those who knew and loved Miss Lucretia Hart Clay in hearing of her passing away on Monday morning after several months of illness.

She had all the attributes, characteristic of the Southern women of noble birth and superior talents and none knew her but to admire her dainty beauty, superior intellect and charming presence.
