

Louisville Dec. 6 1873

My Dear Husband

I am kept so busy seeing Nettie's company and accepting invitations that it is hard to find time to sit down and write. Nettie and her boy are getting along better than any one I ever saw - The house is still fragrant with fresh flowers which come every day. Matt Johnson and Julia Forrester brought her the last - Katie and May Dudley have each sent presents to the