Dear Father,

Your letter
and check came promptly and were very welcome.
Each month I think how nice it is to have some thing that will certainly come, and wish that Tom's patients were like my father.

The postman came to-day to trace a package that had been sent to me from Danville and I told him to go no farther as I had it. I wrote just now to thank Gene Goodloe for it and set her mind at rest. It was a pretty centre piece she had
