

219 N. B. Way
May 10th 1884

Dear Henry-

As soon as I heard of the failure - I consulted Alex and found that the Thruston Estate was so entangled that Fanny could make no written obligation beyond her income Last night I had a visit from Charley & Thruston - They pledge me their honor to pay me the interest - regularly - and the principal as soon as possible - They have offered their credit a lien on all the estate they inherit on their Mother's death their father insuring their lives to the amount of all he now had - say $10,000 - Two thousand a year - At the expiration of five years if