

BENJ. H. BRISTOW.
WILLIAM PEET.
WM. S. OPDYKE.
DAVID WILLCOX.

ELIAS G. BROWN.

Bristow, Peet & Opdyke, 20 Nassau St., New York.

Octo 27 1858

My dear Major
Yesterday Mr Burtow brought me down Fifth Avenue in his new "turbot." The horse in new harness hitched to a Brighton just from Brewster made a good appearance & attracted much attention. Mr Burtow is a little nervous about them because of their high carriage & spirited action; but his Coachman says they are as "Kind as Kittens." The only drawback is their youthfulness - and the fact that the horse last purchased is decidedly the better horse of the two. He is a picture.
A perfect model for his kind would not be steered unequalled by any in this city. But as they are, they