My dear Major

In view of my letter of two days ago, I want to say now that the treachery of David B. Hill and of Grant, (Tommony's Candidate for Mayor) did the business. In spite of all the calculations and confidence of our friends, Cleveland would have had this state been elected if Hill & Grant hadn't worked him off yesterday.

Of course it is protipping to have Horner elected, but it is a sad thing for this state & city to have Hill for Gov & Grant for Mayor.
