Dear Major

I was very kind of Mr. McDowell Young to ask us to come to your hospital home on the occasion of the Pro-Preston wedding, and I can imagine nothing that could give us greater pleasure. But my engagements for this month preclude the idea of my going to the wedding. & Mr. Benton says she won't go without me. If Annie should go, (which is rather doubtful) she will have her boy in our charge. I hear that the General has about
