Dear Major

I think it proper to say to you that Corley has asked me to accept employment in the suits at Louisville to look after Stoke care of his personal interest in the Ky Union R.R. & Land Companies. He seemed to expect that I would look to what might be made for him out of the wreck for my compensation. After several interviews with him I concluded that I would not accept the employment upon the terms offered & so told him.
