his transcontinental
road - that is just where Rip wanted
to take us two years ago. This will suit me

THE LEDGES,
HOPEDALE, MASS.

April 21. 1891

Dear Major
Yours of the 17th inst
followed me here this morning. For three weeks the modern Moloch - which one can call grief because they don't know what it is - has held me tightly in its grasp. Lint had ten days of general misery - threatened pneumonia
& a distressing cough.
This was followed by a series of little corns.
