

BENJ. H. BRISTOW.
WILLIAM PEET.
WM. S. OPDYKE.
DAVID WILLCOX.
WM. B. BRISTOW.

Bristow, Peet & Opdyke,
20 Nassau St. New York.

June 18. 1892

My dear Major

I return herewith the letter of Mr Walker to you.
I will make an effort to get some information about Colorado game from another source.
My impressions are quite favorable to that region. I fear our friend Feltou can't go this year.

The China tariff plank is revolutionary & therefore democratic.
The impression here is that it was adopted for the purpose of defeating Cleveland. If that don't best him nothing could.

I hope you will have luck
on your fishing excursion.

On Friday I am going with a small party of friends on Pierpont Morgan's Yacht to Newport to spend two