

BENJ. H. BRISTOW.
WILLIAM PEET.
WM. S. OPDYKE.
DAVID WILLCOX.
W. M. B. BRISTOW.

Bristow, Peet & Opdyke,
20 Nassau St. New York.

April 19. 1893

Dear Major

Much as I would like to go to the Rockies this summer it does not seem probable that I can.

If it were not for the apprehension of quarantine troubles I would go to Aix. les. Bains again this year. Very early in June; but in view of the probable spread of Cholera on the Continent of Europe, perhaps it is a good year to stay on this side. It seems probable now that we will spend a part of the summer at the hot springs of Va. I hope you & Mrs. & all of you will like better. What time will it suit you to spend a month there? I am very sorry - as was Mr. Bristow that you & Mrs. & all of you