Dear Major

After long & stubborn resistance I have yielded to the Chicago Fair invitation. Those arranged transportation for Mr Bristow, myself & Mr & Mrs Draper leaving here on the 12th inst.

We will stop at the Auditorium Amway will probably be there a week. Now, should you or any of your family be there during that week. I wish you would let us know. Kind regards to all

Faithfully yours

A. C. McDowell Esq. B. H. Bristow
