Dear Major

I send you by mail a little book entitled "The Major in Worthington City" You will recognize the "Major" as an old Southern acquaintance, a near Kinsman of "Col Cortes" and a man to be found in almost every section of the South. And I am sure you will get a good hearty laugh from the reading as I have done.

I can't tell you how sorry I am to have to give up the hunt. I have engaged to argue an important case at Cleveland to which I hoped would be heard this week; but the Judge has been
