Dear Major
Your letter of the 7th read this morning releases my mind.
I did not know that the matter had been told to you & am much exercised as to my duty to you.
When I read Judge Mortons letter I sought an interview with the woman lawyer in the hope that I might be able to settle the matter by paying her a reasonable sum & in that event did not intend to let you know anything of it.
But when I found the situation was as stated in my letter to Judge B. I felt that it was my duty to tell you of it. I am only awaiting a reply
