

BENJ. H. BRISTOW
WILLIAM PEET.
WM S. OPDYKE.
DAVID WILLCOX.
WM B. BRISTOW.

Bristow, Peet & Opdyke,
20. Nassau St., New York.

Aug 28, 1894

Dear Major

Dr Hagon called at my Room last night & we had a long talk about the woman. He knows a good deal about the affair from conversations with both parties.
He says there was never any pretense or claim of marriage - that the relations were wholly mercenary &c. While he claims to be a friend of Dr B, he says he is also a friend of the woman & is very unwilling to testify in the case if it should come to trial. Whether he may have learned from the woman or her medical adviser is finalized under the N.Y. Statute she would