

delicious climate & as soon as I feel well enough to take the baths & drive truck about the Country I expect to get rested & vigorous.

Mr Fink & Ellen are here. Judge & Mrs Graham come last night & there are some other acquaintances from New York & Baltimore here. The hotel is fairly good, the scenery beautiful, the baths equal to any in the world & the air perfect.

Dear Major

I can't tell you how much we are disappointed by your letter telling us that we are not to have the pleasure to see you & Mr & Mrs Wood here.

I come here very tired & they sick & have spent most of the time in bed, but today am feeling somewhat better.
This is certainly a most
