Dear Major

After pleasant passages both ways, on comfortable Steamers & with agreeable companions, Mr Bristow & I returned on the 25th of Sept having been away a few days less than two months. Most of our time was spent in France - at Aix. Le. Bains and Paris and during nearly all of it the weather was hotter than I can describe without reference to an alleged place of abode for wicked spirits after this life.
