

SAMUEL A. MILLER,
President.

J. STODDARD JOHNSTON,
Vice President.

CLIFTON RODES BARRET,
Treasurer.

WM. REINECKE,
Secretary.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

SAMUEL A. MILLER,
Vice President of Dennis Long & Company, Louisville, Ky.

J. STODDARD JOHNSTON,
Editor "Frankfort Yeoman," Frankfort, Ky.

GEORGE J. LONG,
Secretary and Treasurer of Dennis Long & Company, Louisville, Ky.

DANIEL W. LINDSEY,
Attorney at Law, Frankfort, Ky.

CLIFTON RODES BARRET,
Louisville, Ky.

FRANKFORT WATER COMPANY, OF FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan 6, 1887

Dear Henry,

*I feel that I have come to a turning point in the matter of my Three Forks interest and must act decisively.
I therefore write you without reserve to state the situation.
I have effected such arrangements as will enable me to carry the land but have meanwhile been bringing it to the attention of Capitalists. My efforts in this respect have been so successful that I feel quite satisfied that unless I withdraw it from the market, I will within 30 or 60 days, sell to parties now figuring on it and only awaiting better weather for examining it critically. I have 12000 acres and the price at which it will go will approximate $10. per acre. I feel sure it is worth much more money but the opportunity to relieve myself of debt and a part*