OFFICE 47 CHAPIN BLOCK.

BUFFALO, N.Y. July 11, 1888.

Major. H.C. McDowell,
Lexington, Ky.

My Dear Sir:

The week preceding the Buffalo Fair there is one held at Hornellsville, N.Y., which is one of the largest Fairs in the east, and will be directly on your route from Kentucky here.

Would it not be well for you to have your horses sent there? They would have a week to rest up in, and then could be brought here with very little additional expense, and possibly in a better condition.

If you will exhibit your horses at Hornellsville, that Association will pay you $100.00 in cash. Kindly consider this matter, and let me hear from you.

Very truly yours,

C. W. Robinson,
Sec'y.
