

My Dear Sir

Ashland 11th Aug. 1842

I send you some further memoranda, and I believe the last with which I will annoy you. I have not yet been advised of your reception of my last communications, relating to the Compromise Act, Negotiations at Ghent &c.

I reminded you this to the case of Willis Hall.

God send you a safe disengagement from the work in which you are engaged, and better work.

Ephes Sargent Esq

I am truly
Your friend
H. Clay
