

- 1 Every student is expected to attend service in one of the churches of the city at least once on Sunday, unless prevented by ill health, excused absence, or excused by his parent or guardian.
- 2 The use of all intoxicating liquors is forbidden, whether on or off the grounds.
- 3 The use of tobacco in College Building and dining rooms is forbidden.
- 4 No student shall visit billiard rooms, saloons or any other places of immoral practices or tendencies.
- 5 Profanity, obscenity, boisterous conduct, and late hours are forbidden.
- 6 Defacing or otherwise injuring the College building, mutilating the trees or shrubbery on the grounds, and wanton or careless injury to the premises besides subjecting the offender to the discipline of the Faculty will be punished by assessing proper damages upon the person or persons guilty.
- 7 Each student is expected to deport himself properly in the presence of the professors and instructors of the college whether in or out of the class room.
- 8 It is expected and required that each student when not engaged in recitation or in needful recreation on the grounds confine himself quietly to his own quarters and refrain from annoying his companions by obtrusive and unseasonable visitations.
- 9 The occupants of each room and the occupants of each cottage and domicile on the grounds shall keep their bedding, quarters and surroundings neat and clean. Offenders in these matters will be subject to the discipline of the Faculty.
- 10 The possession and the use of fire arms on the grounds of the college are forbidden.

On motion of Prof. Shackelford the Faculty adjourned
John Shackelford Sec.

March 28th 1879

The Faculty met in the President's room. Present, Pres. Patterson, Profs. Peter, Pickett, White, Randall and Shackelford

Mr. C. G. Blahely was elected to deliver the Valedictory at the next Commencement; Mr. ^{N.B.} Hayes, the Salutator; and Messrs H. M. Wright and C. S. Perry orations, provided in each case that the final examinations proved satisfactory.

The speeches were not to exceed ten minutes each.
On motion, adjourned.

John Shackelford Jr. Sec.