AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION SEMINAR

The Lexington Chapter of the American Business Women's Association is presenting an educational and personal growth seminar on April 23, 1983, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Campbell House Inn in Lexington. The program will address Assertiveness, Income, Burn-out, Stress, Insurance and Goal-setting. The $15.00 registration fee includes lunch, which is followed by a fashion show. Preregistration is required by April 18. For more information contact: Norma Jean Gibson, Reference Department, or Vicky King, Map Department.

INFORMATION FROM THE PRESERVATION COMMITTEE

High-volume binding for publishers is much different than that of just a decade ago. Publishers and book manufacturers alike are caught in a tight squeeze of high material and labor costs in an intensified competitive market.

Most publishers now use the least expensive colored Kraft papers for their hardcover bindings. A decade ago, most book papers used to be free of groundwood pulp. Today, the trend is away from high-quality paper to cheaper grades and lighter basic weights.

FROM LSO

QUESTIONNAIRE RESULTS

I'm sure all of you are waiting with baited breath to see the results of this survey. First I would like to thank those of you who answered (49 people, or approximately 25% of the staff) and 20 lashes with a wet McBee to those of you who didn't. The results cleared up some points, but clouded others. Well, here goes.

1. How much should non-LSO members be charged to attend LSO functions.
 - $0-$1 - 16 people
 - $1.01- 22 people
 Those not specifying amounts suggested a cost/function so that LSO could break even.

2. Do you like the format of the picnic or would you like it altered?
 - Same - 24
 - Alter - 8
 Suggestions were made that more entertainment be provided at the picnic.

3. Where would you like the picnic?
 - Horse Park - 17
 - Spindletop - 9
 - Carnahan House - 6
 Other places mentioned were Jacobson Park, Harrodsburg State Park and Keenland.

4. Would you be interested in a tour of the State Library?
 - Yes - 38
 "No" counts were not tallied since we were only interested in seeing if there would be enough to fill a bus. This tour would probably take place on a weekday.

5. Topics for Brown Bag Luncheons.
 - Tax tips, money management and eating for good health did very well, all getting around 20 votes. Various other suggestions were made which are too numerous to list here.

6. How often do you attend LSO functions

Often - 22	Why not attend more? Workload - 9
Occasionally - 3	Distance - 5
Rarely - 6	Disinterest - 3

 As expected, this question probably reveals that LSO members are the ones who answered the questionnaire, since they are the ones who attend the functions.

7. Would you be willing to pay extra to go to Spindletop or the Student Center for the Christmas luncheon? Yes-30 How much? $0-$4 - 7
No-20 $4.01- 10

There seems to be a split between those who want to keep the tradition of home cooking and atmosphere of the paperback reading room and those who want a change of pace and be free of the burden of cooking. The overwhelming choice was Spindletop as the place to dine. (You don't "eat" at Spindletop, you "dine").

8. Money making project ideas.

The most recurring idea seems to be the updating of the staff cookbook.

Well there you have it folks. If there are any comments about the questionnaire or if you want to help on some of these projects feel free to contact Perry Bratcher 7-3831

HAT'S OFF

Hats off and a great big THANKS to the following people who worked diligently each month during 1982 to keep the Staff Lounge in King North cleaned up and supplies available. Alan Schaplowsky chaired this committee and coordinated the efforts of the following volunteers:

Karen Jefferson	Jean Karsten
Nazee Depp	Joyce Welch
Lorraine Bates	Jane Dean
Mary Geyer	Evelyn Evans
Jean Whitney	Jean Robinson
Barbara Hahn	Libby Potts
Alan Schaplowsky, Chair

Some other hardy souls have agreed to join the above group for 1983 - Sharon Clark, Patty Dacci, Patty Hornbeck, and Emily Pugh. Our thanks and appreciation to all these people. If you'd like to take on cleaning and/or shopping duties for a month at a time for the King North Staff Lounge, see Alan Schaplowsky in Acquisitions, 7-3811.

AD HOC COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE BYLAWS

The most recent revision of the LSO Bylaws was in 1974 with the dues increase. John Bryant has agreed to chair a committee to revise this document. Pam Fields, Christine Robinson, and Norma Jean Gibson will be working with him. Some obvious problems include gender exclusive language, definitions of "active members", and flowers and gifts. Departmental representatives have copies of the current bylaws if you want to take a look at them. The committee has not yet begun its work so if you're interested in helping out, contact John Bryant, Director's Office, 7-3801 or Karen Croneis, Math. Sci. Library, 7-8365.

CRAFT SALE

Some interest has been expressed in having a crafts sale in the summer, maybe in July. Keep this in mind. More details later.

I GOOFED

In a recent WAX BEAN, I incorrectly reported that Mary Welch was helping on the Social Committee. JOYCE Welch is the one I should have listed. My apologies to both Mary and Joyce.

SWEET SUCCESS

It was a dextrose delight March 29th at the LSO bakesale. All sorts of goodies were donated by the staff and most of it was snarffed down by 11 o'clock. There were cookies, pies, cakes, baklava, ooh I can't go on it's getting to me. Thanks go to all who prepared the goodies and special thanks go to Andrea Bryant and Cathy Hunt (Program Committee members), Cecil Madison, and Barbara Hale who handled the money box (and on her morning off even). The winners of the door prizes were Tari Keller in the Cataloging Dept. and Mary Margaret Bell who is with the Kentucky Guide Project in Special Collections. (All proceeds from this event and others like it go toward cards, flowers and memorial contributions. During 1982, LSO spent $158.14.)

LSO BOOKSALE

The LSO Booksale will be held on April 21 and 22 in conjunction with the Library Associates Booksale. We are looking forward to another successful year and your contributions will be appreciated. Dust off your collection and donate any books (both hardbound and soft bound) you no longer need. Be a part of a successful function! Volunteers for work at the sale will also be appreciated. If interested call Perry Bratcher, 7-3891. Also remember to send your books to Jesse Adams in the Bindery Dept. Remember to tell Jesse what they are for or they will go into the stacks, never to be seen again. (Just kidding!)

ABOUT THE STAFF

Welcome to:

SUSAN OSBORN who is the (relatively) new technician in the Art Library, having just begun her job last November. She is a graduate of both Asbury College (B.A. in Art) and the University of Kentucky (M.A. in Art History). On Fridays, Susan disappears to Wilmore to spend the weekend with her "intended" Dan Corbitt, and his family. Susan and Dan met as students at Asbury. Dan is currently in dental school in Louisville and hopes to finish up this year and then be a resident at the UK Medical Center next year.

As for hobbies, Susan has always had an interest in painting and drawing. She is very pragmatic when asked her preference--it's whatever she has money for at the moment!

Stop by the Art Library in the basement of King North and say "Hi!" to Susan--and enjoy the huge print of Monet's "The Poppy Fields at Argenteuil" that she and Meg Shaw have in their office. It's definitely NOT "grody to the max"! (Any "Valley People" out there who know the word/phrase I'm looking for? Hmmm, how about a reference librarian??)

and,

as most folks know, GPD has a new department head, SANDEE McANINCH. Sandee came to Kentucky from the University of Georgia and has been here since January. Unfortunately, her husband Glen is still in Atlanta, trying to sell their house there! Glen's background is in history and he's especially interested in archives, computers, basketball and tennis. He'll soon be job-hunting here in the Bluegrass, so keep your eyes and ears open for possibilities!

One of Sandee's hobbies is painting. It seem that she was pleasantly surprised with a watercolor that she did and so she has kept at it. The only problem she has is finding time, especially since she is the interim editor of DOCUMENTS TO THE PEOPLE, which is the official publication of ALA's Government Documents Round Table. A couple of weeks ago, her office was piled high with boxes, papers and manuscripts--all of which she will GLADLY be handing over to the next editor.

As a special treat, the WAX BEAN Chorus has joined me. We're happy to welcome Sandee here, and we also look forward to welcoming Glen to Kentucky. We hope--OK chorus, this is you're cue--that "you'll come to love it--in, oh, so many ways!"

(Tenors and basses, you were flat. Practice session Friday at 4:40 p.m. at Starthrower's. No reasonable excuses accepted.)

CONDOLENCES

To BETTY SUTTON (Education Library) on the recent death of her mother Thelma Harnett Jeter. On behalf of the staff a donation will be made to the appropriate charity.

FROM THE STAFF

Dear LSO Members,

I sincerely appreciate your thoughtfulness in making a contribution to the Center on Aging (for the study of Alzheimer's Disease) in the memory of my father.

Just knowing that friends like you care helps to make my loss easier to bear.

Thank you,
Ron Lloyd

The family of Martha Marie Taylor acknowledges with deep appreciation your kind expression of sympathy.
