Hobart Thomas, University of Kentucky halfback, is 4-F because he's partly deaf. When he's in the game, Kentucky players have to huddle a greater distance from the opposing team and talk louder in discussing signals.

The University of Kentucky team became the Wildcats in 1910. A sports writer used the appellation in referring to the Kentucky Wesleyan team 42-0. Earlier, the team had been variously known as the Cadets, Colonels, Corn-Crackers, and Thoroughbreds.

The University of Kentucky Volunteers, who meet the Kentucky Wildcats on the gridiron twice this year, were guests at Kentucky's first home-coming game in 1915. Kentucky won the game 6-0 by virtue of kicking two field goals.

A measles epidemic was blamed for the poor showing in 1917 of the University of Kentucky football team against the Crimson Tide of Alabama. The Tidesmen slaughtered the Wildcats 27-0. The measles epidemic on the Kentucky campus officially was at an end the next week when the Wildcats whipped Florida 52-0.

Wilbur Schu, who won a berth last spring on the second All-Southeastern Conference basketball team, will see a lot of action this year as an end on the Kentucky football team. Fellow-players call him "Senator" because he formerly lived with A. B. (Happy) Chandler, junior United States senator from Kentucky.

Glen Plaid FALL SUITS

GLEN PLAIDS are good this Fall. Glen Plaid Suits have surprised even us! With the popularity of the Glen Plaid pattern in every type of apparel, it's quite natural that men should want it in a smart looking suit. Some of our most conservative customers are calling for them. They've lost their look of boldness and have settled into a permanent place of smartness for business and all occasions. See our Glens in fine worsteds. Single and Double Breasted.
