PRIDE DAY

I, Jim Gray, Mayor of Lexington,
in celebration of our progress, our leaders, and our bright future,
do hereby declare June 25, 2016,
Pride Day.

A WORD FROM THE FESTIVAL CHAIR

Dear Festival -goers,

This weekend marks almost exactly one year since the Supreme Court issued the ruling on Marriage Equality! We are proud, privileged and tickled pink to be able to put on yet another exciting day filled with celebration for fairness, love and the right to express the wonderful person who is YOU! On behalf of the Pride Festival Committee, the PCSO Board and all our dedicated Volunteers I would like to wish a safe and enjoyable Lexington Pride Festival 2016!

"It would misunderstand these men and women to say they disrespect the idea of marriage. Their plea is that they do respect it, respect it so deeply that they seek to find its fulfillment for themselves. Their hope is not to be condemned to live in loneliness, excluded from one of civilization's oldest institutions. They ask for equal dignity in the eyes of the law. The Constitution grants them that right." — Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy, writing for the majority

Gilman burst onto the national stage in 2000 releasing the hit single "One Voice." His debut album was certified double platinum in the United States, and he was included in the Guinness Book of World Records for being the youngest singer to ever reach #1 on the Billboard Top Country Album charts. He has sold five million albums worldwide and garnered awards and nods from the Academy of Country Music, the Country Music Association, Billboard Magazine, and the American Music Association.

BILLY GILMAN

EVENING HEADLINER

Now 25, Gilman is eager to come back and share his new music and his new sound with his fans. "It took me a good while to figure out exactly who I was, musically speaking. As a little kid, sometimes I was just told what to sing. But now I have enjoyed coming into my own and discovering what it really is that I want to sing. And I think that my fans will be pleasantly surprised with what they hear."

Gilman is also mindful of the need to be patient with his career. "Music is my life, and it is always what I will be doing with my life. But I understand, given my unusual history, that the road back is not going to be short and easy. I will have to earn my way back into this business—one fan at a time. And that's exactly how it should be."

Say You Will is the first solo single that Gilman has released since 2008.

CHEVYGURL

AFTERNON HEADLINER

ChevyGurl is ready to take the music seen by storm even though she has not put a genre on her style. ChevyGurl says this has been a lifelong dream to become a hip hop star, and she understands that it won't happen overnight.

While one may be tempted to dismiss ChevyGurl as just another addition to the already crowded scene of female rappers, but take note: ChevyGurl smooth rap style is anything, but more of the status quo. ChevyGurl has the right combination of smoothness, sassiness, and the drive with a lady like substance for good taste.

KRISTEN FORD

AFTERNON HEADLINER

Kristen Ford delivers a high energy set of indie rock. She lives for live performance, her passion and charisma shining forth on stage as a one woman looping band. Her hooks will linger in your mind, blending genres from folk to reggae to rock.

Where she's from is a long story. Let's just say Boston was home for five years, and after 2 years on the road full time, she's new to Nashville, TN. For the most part you'll find Kristen Ford on stage and on tour, which feels just as homey as anywhere.
