DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY

President, University of Kentucky

Dr. Otis A. Singletary has maintained an active role both in academics and athletics since he became the University of Kentucky's eighth president in August 1969.

Great strides toward academic excellence have characterized Dr. Singletary's presidency at UK. The Schools of Dentistry and Pharmacy consistently rank among the best in the nation. Departments such as political science, history, and mathematics have also gained nationwide attention while the UK Library now rates among the best in the Southeast.

Under Singletary's leadership, the University of Kentucky has also become a major research institution. The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center is an established leader in research on cancer and the aging. UK's agricultural college has provided important research in tobacco and equine diseases while other University research has focused on the field of coal and other energy sources.

Singletary's involvement in athletics is as impressive as his academic achievements. A former president of the Southeastern Conference, Dr. Singletary is a member of the NCAA Select Committee on Athletic Problems and Concerns in Higher Education. He is also chairman of the board of directors of the College Football Association.

As president of the principal institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth, Dr. Singletary is greatly concerned with the University's role as a land grant institution, a "people's university" accessible to all who can profit from education.

In the 13 years Singletary has been president, the University of Kentucky has grown in enrollment to about 23,000 students on its Lexington campus and more than 22,000 students in the University's 13 community colleges.

Recognition of his service to the University of Kentucky was evidenced by the UK Alumni Association which presented to Dr. Singletary its Alumni Service Award, an honor rarely bestowed upon a non-alumnus of the University.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Singletary holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University. An accomplished administrator, Dr. Singletary served as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs for the University of Texas system prior to coming to Kentucky.

He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot, and Kendall.

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN

Athletics Director

the 1984 NCAA Basketball Championships. In 1985, the prestigious NCAA "Final Four" basketball championships will be hosted by UK and held in Rupp Arena.

Having graduated from the University of Kentucky with high distinction in 1954, Hagan has been a long-time advocate of a strong scholar-athlete program.

Hagan, one of the greatest players in UK basketball history, received one of his highest individual honors in 1978 when he became the first University of Kentucky player to be inducted in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

An Owensboro, Ky. native, Hagan is married to the former Martha Milton, also of Owensboro. They have four children: Mrs. Barry "Lisa" Thaxton of Lexington; Mrs. Jim "Laurie" Hill of West Liberty; Amy, a senior at the University of Alabama; and Kip, a sophomore member of the Transylvania University basketball and tennis teams.

When Terry Hall arrived at Kentucky in 1980, the Lady Kats were coming off their most successful season ever and beginning to gain national respect. They had been ranked in the Top 20 throughout the 1979-80 season and had finished the year with a 24-5 record and a berth in the AIAW National playoffs.

But the season was just a hint of the great things to come under Hall's guidance. The Lady Kats have gone far beyond respectability and into the perennial role of national contender. They have been ranked in the Top 20 every week and averaged 24 wins per season since Hall's arrival.

In her first year at UK, Hall's Lady Kats went 25-6, winning the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference and reaching the final round of 16 in the AIAW National tournament. Hall was named the KWIC Coach of the Year that season.

In 1982 and again last season the Lady Kats were considered among the top contenders for the NCAA championship. The 1981-82 squad won the Southeastern Conference championship and reached the quarter-finals of NCAA play before losing to eventual national champion Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techsters' home floor. Last year's Lady Kats were ranked fourth in the nation but fell to Indiana in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Hall's record at Kentucky is 72-19, and considering Kentucky's tough scheduling habits (10 games with ranked opponents last season AND this season), a .791 winning percentage is outstanding. Her career record is 165-79. That mark includes one season at Eastern Kentucky, five at Louisville and three at Kentucky.

Hall began her coaching career in the high school ranks. Following her graduation from Indiana State in 1966, she was named head coach at Butler High School in Louisville. In five seasons at Butler, Hall coached her teams to two Jefferson County titles and an overall record of 69-33.

Then it was on to Eastern Kentucky University, where Hall earned her Master's Degree in 1974 and was immediately named head basketball coach. The Lady Colonels went 14-6 that season and won the KWIC title over Kentucky, Louisville, Western, Morehead, Murray and Northern Kentucky.

Hall then accepted the coaching job at Louisville, where she was faced with rebuilding a program. She succeeded, guiding the Lady Cards to a 79-54 record over five years. In 1979-80, her last season at U of L, the Lady Cards won their first Metro Conference championship. Hall also coached tennis and softball at U of L.

A native of Salem, Ind., Hall earned both her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Health and P.E. While attending Indiana State, she starred in basketball, field hockey and volleyball. She was honored with the "I" Woman Award in 1965, and received the prestigious Hillman Award in 1966 as the most outstanding female athlete at ISU.

Coach Hall on Kentucky's Style of Play: "Our style of play, or trademark, is the fast break. We believe that applying immediate pressure on the defensive team is one of the best ways to win a basketball game. Kentucky is one of few teams in the country totally dedicated to fast break basketball. Defensively, we play whatever defense we feel will exploit our opponents' weaknesses. Our main concerns are controlling the tempo of the game, teamwork, and shot selection by our players."

Coach Hall on Working With the Players: "I place a high premium on hard work and dedication to the task at hand. I want my players to feel the same way. I try to teach them that "doors of opportunity" open and close very quickly in life as well as on the basketball court. So always be prepared. In the span of a lifetime, their 4 years of college basketball is short, therefore they should work hard, be dedicated, excel, and enjoy the opportunity that exists."

Mike Kindred

Assistant Coach
Eastern Kentucky University, 1980

Mike was hired as a part-time assistant at UK in July, and then was elevated to full-time assistant in late September following the resignation of assistant coach Dottie Berry. A 1980 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, Mike served for two seasons as assistant girls' basketball coach at Estill County High School in Irvine, Ky., before coming to UK.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Mike graduated from Clark County High School in 1975. He then attended Morehead State University for one year before transferring to Eastern. He received a degree in Industrial Education, and then taught at Clark County for one year before accepting a job at Estill County.

In his first season at Estill, Mike helped direct the varsity squad to its first-ever winning season in 1982. The following year, the Lady Engineers won their first district championship. Mike's junior varsity squad, meanwhile, was doing even better, finishing with a 15-4 record in 1982 and a 19-4 record in 1983.

Mike is very active in the Big Brothers-Big Sisters program, and currently sits on the organization's Advisory Board in Winchester. He is also an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and was the FCA's 10th Region representative last year while coaching at Estill County.

Joining the coaching staff at UK fulfills a life-time dream for Mike, a 26-year old bachelor who has always been a "Big Blue" fan.

ROBIN BOARD

Graduate Assistant Louisville, 1983

A former player for Coach Terry Hall at Louisville, Robin joined the Lady Kat staff in September. While at Louisville, Robin lettered in basketball four consecutive years, two of those seasons with Coach Hall at the helm. She was a member of the Lady Card teams that won Metro Conference titles in 1979 and 1981 and is in the record book for best free throw percentage in a season, which she set in 1979. Robin was also an outstanding high school player at Louisville Butler High. She helped her team to the Girls' State Tournament in 1976 and 1978. She was All-State honorable mention for three straight years and played in the East-West All-Star game in 1978. She also played tennis for three seasons and ran track one year at Butler.

Robin is pursuing a Masters Degree in Recreational Therapy at UK. She has a great interest in young people and has participated as a volunteer for Special Olympics for five straight years. She also is credited with starting two Youth Basketball Camps in 1981 and 1982 at the St. Matthews YMCA in Louisville.

A former collegiate softball player at U of L, Robin has umpired softball and officiated basketball and volleyball. She is 23 years old and single.

NEBRASKA VS. KENTUCKY: COULD BE A REAL SHOOTOUT

Records: Kentucky 6-3

Nebraska 6-1

Series Record: First meeting

With Nebraska ranked among the nation's leaders in scoring and Kentucky ranked nationally in field goal percentage, a real shootout can be expected tonight in Memorial Coliseum. The Cornhuskers are averaging 84.2 points a game and have fired in 50.4 percent of their shots as they're off to their second-best start ever. Kentucky, meanwhile, averages 73.9 points and ranks in the top 10 in field goal percentage at 52.5.

The Lady Kats are coming off an exciting 107-102 double overtime victory at Detroit on Dec. 28. In that game, Kentucky squandered an 11-point lead with 13 minutes left in the game, but overcame four-point deficits in each overtime to pull out the win.

In Nebraska, the Lady Kats will be facing a similar team. "They get up and down the court just like Detroit does," UK Coach Terry Hall said. "I'd say this might be a high-scoring game, too."

The Huskers are led in scoring by 5-7 junior guard Crystal Coleman, who averages 18 points on 51.4 percent shooting. Next is 5-10 center Angie Miller, who contributes 15.7 points and a team-leading 10.3 rebounds. Forward Debra Powell and guard Kelli Benson add 14.2 and 10.2 points a game.

Tonight's game is the first road contest for Coach Kelly Hill's club. It is the first of six games in an 11-day road trip.

The Lady Kats lost two homecourt games before Christmas and hope to get another victory under their belt before hosting third-ranked Georgia Saturday at 7:30.

Georgia's only loss this season was at No. 1-ranked Southern California. The Lady Bulldogs have five starters back from last season's squad that finished 27-7 and reached the Final Four.

Kentucky is currently led in scoring by 6-foot sophomore forward Leslie Nichols, who averages 18 points. Sophomore center Karen Mosley adds 16.4 points and 8.5 rebounds. Junior guard Diane Stephens has had a hot hand lately and has boosted her average to 11.4, while senior center Jody Runge has a 10.1 average and senior guard Lisa Collins adds 9.4 a game.

MORE CONFIDENT MILLER IMPROVES WITH EACH GAME

By RENA KOIER

As a high school player at Casey County, Debbie Miller had everything under control. Most of the time, she was the biggest player on the floor. And almost without exception, she was the best player on the floor.

For four years as a starter for the Lady Rebels, Debbie endured double- and triple-teaming to the tune of 2,413 career points. She averaged 29 points and 14 rebounds and was named to every all-state team her senior season. She was second in balloting for Miss Basketball. In other words, Debbie dominated the high school game.

So it was only natural when she found the transition to the college game a little tough. "I just wasn't used to playing against people bigger and better than me," she said. "I felt that if I wasn't scoring, then I wasn't contributing. I was really being hard on myself. I knew I wasn't playing up to my potential. I had lost confidence in myself and I know that Coach Hall and the players had lost confidence in me, too."

So Deb did some soul-searching. "I had to decide how important being at Kentucky was to me," she said. "Then, suddenly I woke up. I reminded myself that this was one of the best programs in the country, and I had always wanted to come to Kentucky. I began to realize I had a lot of selfish feelings but I've got everything straightened out now."

Debbie's game began to take a turn for the better in Kentucky's hard-fought homecourt victory over Indiana. In nine minutes of action, the 6-1 freshman hit her only field goal attempt, grabbed three rebounds, stole the ball from the Lady Hoosiers and failed to make any turnovers.

Next the Lady Kats traveled to South Carolina, and with Leslie Nichols back in Lexington with a broken nose, Debbie was needed even more. She played 17 minutes, hit all three field goal attempts, both free throw attempts, and totaled six points and three rebounds.

"I feel a lot better now," Debbie says. "I think I've gotten a lot more confidence. It's like I'm over the hump."

While Debbie appears to have her problems straightened out, the team as a whole seems to be struggling. After five consecutive wins and a No. 20 national ranking, the Lady Kats were blasted 78-49 by No. 16 Alabama at home.

"The team wasn't ready and there was no one to pick us up and get us going," Debbie said. "It just simply came down to them wanting it worse than we did. It's clear that we can't just show up and win, and I don't know if we were at the point of believing that or not. I did feel that that is what happened to the team when they lost to Indiana in the playoffs last year."

Debbie is beginning to identify her role at Kentucky, and part of it is to help the team battle such complacency. "I just want to help," she said. "I realize now that I'm basically a back-up for the front line. But I'll do anything to aid our success, whether it's cheering the others on, pushing them in practice or just helping to keep everyone's heads on straight."

Senior co-captain Lynnette Lewis sees in Debbie a maturity not common in freshmen. "She's got a lot of deep thoughts about a lot of things," Lynnette says. "And she's very well-liked. She really considers other people's feelings and the girls all respect her."

Lynnette also likes Debbie's on-the-court contributions. "She's improving every day," she said. "She gets more confidence with each practice, and that's showing up in the games. I'm sure she's going to be an important part of our season."

WINSTON BENNETT: ALWAYS DOING HIS BEST

By LESLIE HUDDLESTON

In a program in which freshmen traditionally develop slowly, frosh Winston Bennett has seen a considerable amount of playing time from the very beginning.

His hard work, determination, and aggressiveness have propelled him into sixth-man status at UK this season. But the Louisville native is not finished.

"The playing time is a great asset to my game, but I'm not satisfied yet. It just gives me the incentive to work harder because I want to break into the starting line-up."

Already, Bennett is considered to be the team leader on defense, a role he likes.

"There's no pressure on defense. It's easy to play defense if you work hard and hustle. It helps me to know that I can help the team."

Sophomore forward Kenny Walker understands his teammate's emphasis on defense because he played the same role last year.

"Playing tough defense is a good way for younger players to see action when they're still learning the system. Older players can rely on their experience. Winston has been a real enforcer for us. He's very aggressive."

Senior Melvin Turpin notes that Bennett's aggressiveness carries over to the entire team.

"Winston comes in and gives us a real spark. He's made us a better defensive team and we feel good about his play."

Ironically, Bennett's first experience with basketball involved defense.

"When I was about four or five years old, my father would sit on the bed and roll up a sock. Then he'd try to shoot it into a waste basket and I'd try to block it."

Bennett progressed quickly from those early days. He began playing in leagues against players in older age groups.

"Those leagues were really good for me because I had to learn different moves to play with those older guys. Being younger, I couldn't just overpower them."

As he got older, though, Bennett overpowered many of his opponents. Highly publicized before he ever entered high school, Bennett went on to become a consensus All-American, Kentucky's Mr. Basketball, a three-time first team All-State selection, and a four-year starter while at Louisville's Male High. He shattered numerous records at the school, but failed to break former U of L star Darrell Griffith's career scoring mark, falling 26 points shy with a total of 2,161. He wasn't disappointed though, noting that he felt good to come so close.

Bennett did experience a major disappointment while at Male. After being ranked number one in the state for most of the season, his team failed to make the state tournament when it was upset in the regional finals.

"It (the loss) was a real disappointment for me because big things had been expected of me and the team since I decided to attend Male. But I realize that many of the really great players never win championships."

Bennett's first involvement with collegiate basketball came when he was a ball boy for the University of Louisville. He saw the experience as an opportunity to gain access to a good program and to learn about the game by watching top players.

Despite his affiliation with U of L, Bennett never had any doubt that he wanted to play for the Wildcats.

"I have admiration for both programs, but basically Kentucky just overwhelmed me in every aspect on and off the court."

Off the court, Bennett tries to be as intense as he is on the basketball floor.

"I guess I've gotten that from my family. My parents have always tried to be the best they can personally."

An only child, Bennett's parents have had a major influence on his life. His mother, in particular, encouraged him to work hard in school and his good study habits have carried over to his college classes. In fact, his attentiveness in class has even impressed his professors. Majoring in business administration, Bennett hopes to someday be the head of his own business. He's certainly willing to work hard to achieve that.

"I just try to do the best I can in everything I do."

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Social, Cultural and Recreational

Opportunities for UK students are not limited to the academic world. Involvement in the social and cultural aspects of University life also is important.

Recognizing this, the University provides the widest range of opportunities for personal and social development. If a student likes music, for instance, the Concert and Lecture Series brings outstanding soloists and symphonies on campus. There are chamber music concerts and hard rock concerts, impromptu bluegrass groups and flute recitals. If one likes to participate, opportunities abound—there are several choral groups, a marching band, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic band—or there is always the guitar with a few friends under the trees. Whichever one chooses, at UK it's available—and there's someone to share it.

There are 22 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on campus. "Rush," or member recruitment, takes place before classes begin, and informally throughout the year.

In addition to supporting the various Wildcat and Lady Kat teams, men and women students take part as individuals or in groups in competitive sports and in intramural programs. The Seaton Center houses facilities in basketball, volleyball, badminton, squash, wrestling, and table tennis. An Olympic-size swimming pool, tennis courts, and several sports fields are available to students.

A similar variety of opportunities in drama, student government, athletics, service organizations, and recreation, is available.

The city of Lexington also offers UK students much in the way of entertainment. Lexington has a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, and shopping centers, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds and streams . . . all in easy distance of the UK campus.

Tailgating at football games, lining up for tickets to see nationally famous Wildcat teams in Rupp Arena or Lady Kat games in Memorial Coliseum, participating in the "Little Kentucky Derby," attending concerts at the downtown arena or in the 11,500-seat Coliseum on the UK campus, visiting the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park . . . all just a few of the many attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.
