Are you getting along with your English? This is one subject that you must give a considerable amount of attention to for you have been rather behind in this. Your letters already show marked improvement + the more often you write the more marked will be the improvement.

You should take pains in writing go slow & choose your words. The ability to express oneself concisely with well chosen words is an accomplishment

My dear Gibson:--

Enclosed you will find the clipping you sent me, for which I thank you. You must have had a great time.

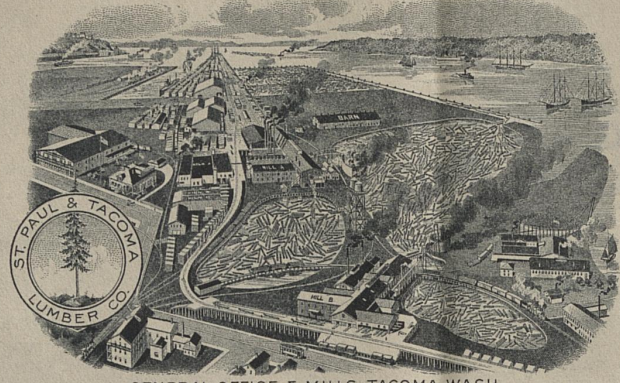

I suppose you have figured on what time you will leave for Falmouth and when you can return on Thanksgiving, and do not fail to give Aunt Fanny our love.

Am glad to hear that you are gaining in weight and hope that you are getting some good exercise. Mr. Davis telephoned your mother yesterday that he had a letter from his father stating that you were looking mighty well and seemed happy and they expected you to dine with them sometime.

Charley Anderson and I went out to the Lake Saturday and found that the carpenters are doing pretty good work, but the stone masons had to stop on account of cold weather. There is about 1/4 to 1/2 of an inch of ice over the pond between our place and the Shevlin's; the rest of the lake was all open. I think the improvements are going to be very fine and after the roof is shingled and things are in shape, I will take the kodak and try a few pictures so you can see what is being done. They have not started on the sun-parlor yet, except the foundation; the porches off the kitchen are coming along all right. Nels' room in the wood-shed is very comfortable, and looks quite cozy. We had two of the ducks for dinner Sunday and they were very fine. Nels has about 30 musk-rats, all good large ones. The mink skins we found were full of moths, and there are only about 9 or 10 musk-rat skins from last year which could be tanned. I will see to it this year that they are all tanned. Your mother will have your gloves sent to you.

The Minnesota-Carlisle game was very interesting and I imagine surprised a great many people. Mr. Stagg, the coach for the Chicago team, was here witnessing the game, and they played a great many substitutes, but I think they will have a hard game in Chicago just the same next Saturday. The Princeton Yale game was surely an exciting one; they did this year a great deal as they did last year;- Princeton outplaying Yale in the first half and Yale out-playing Princeton in the last Harvard evidently has been saving her men for the Yale game, and a large delegation of the team, I understand, saw the Yale Princeton game, which accounted for the large score Dartmouth rolled up against her.

Should think that the train over the New York, New Haven & Hartford line, via Pennsylvania to Washington and from there via Seaboard line to Jacksonville would be the best and most direct way for you to go. Do not fail to keep your big Aunty posted, and I hope your mother will be able to go East and spend the Easter Holidays with you.

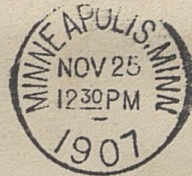

We are all well and very glad to hear good accounts of you, and hope that you will get through with your Christmas examinations with flying colors, but do not write in too much of a hurry, because you run your letters together, and you are not very accurate in spelling; take your time. I hope your term standing is good; this will help a great deal.

Mr. Lillard must be pretty well satisfied with his work as coach of the Andover team.

Have you called on the man to whom Mr. Davis have you letters of introduction?

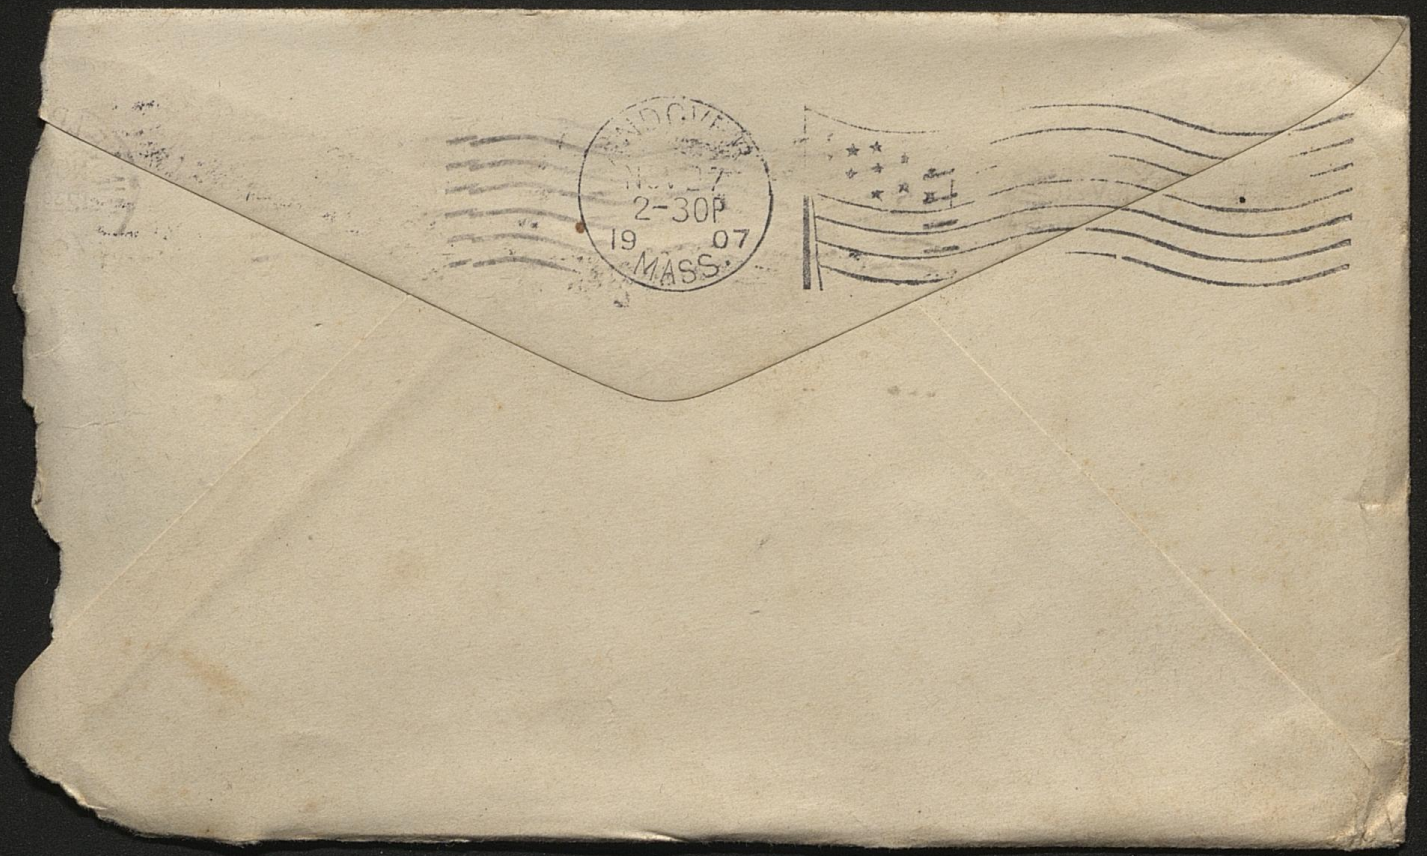

Affectionately yours,

My Dear Gibson - Yesterday Mr.
Albin + Preston Johnston Beale (a cousin of your mother from Virginia) took dinner with me. Sunday
+ I took a long walk in the morning. We had a very nice quiet time. I hope you enjoyed your trip to Falmouth.
Why did you not take in the Yab - Howard game?

Were you ill? I hope the boxes arrived all right + were not too stale.

I intended returning your papers but have forgotten. I have them put carefully away + will send them in a day or two. "Martha Ann Jones".
Now Mrs. Dr. Billier will arrive here this afternoon en route from Tacoma to New York. When will you leave for Florida from Boston? When will you arrive in Jacksonville? Or what lines. I think you would be foolish not to take the through sleeper from Boston to Washington via New York,

New Haven, Hartford + Pennsylvania lines. How much will the round trip cost? How much for the berths. There should be cheap winter excursion rates on now.
We were all pleased to know that you got through without any conditions
