Spring Hill

I from what I know of Lina & what I hear of you. I believe it will be a pleasure
to you both to be known together.

I would suggest that you telephone be.
bookend if possible
& try to call some

SPRING HILL

My dear Lina -
Your mother has asked for Lina's address for you. I hope that you are man enough to go to see her & see if with Miss Godwin of Halfway Cove. Milton.

Sunday afternoon in time for a cup of tea. Had you are very apt not to see Mr. Baker you make an engagement beforehand.

I am enclosing my card introducing you to Miss Loderick who you will find charming.

Be sure to come to Spring Hill when you are in Peabody. Where you will be always sure of the warmest welcome from your Mother's & your own most affectionate kinswoman.

Yours affectionately Elizabeth C. Caudle

men. She is with Miss Godwin at Putnam
House. Milton - & if you have as good reason to be pleased with your boy as I have with my girl.
They will certainly enjoy each other very much.
These send him the
'Open Sesame' which I
exchange with his.

My dear Aunt -
Only yesterday I received a wonderful message from you asking for Dino's address so that Litem might see his -
It will give me the greatest pleasure to hear from him each other - & I hope that his report is near enough to him to call on her

being bad enough to call you at evening eight down to Versailles & being so the 15-16-17-I wouldn't trust you that stabbly for the world - especially if you were as reckless & full of mind as I am just now. If you are still in Kingston, come down & take me to school Sunday evening with me - telephoning the day before so that I just surely be at home -

With lots of love for you & yours. I am always heart of activity,

Dear Gibson,

Thank you ever
so much for asking me to the prom. I have always been perfectly crazy to go, and it nearly breaks my heart to have been a Junior next year instead of this?

Thank you again for asking me, and I am awfully sorry not to be able to go.

Very sincerely yours
