OF THE

PRESTON FAMILY.

MEMORANDA OF THE PRESTON FAMILY.

JOHN PRESTON, first of the family who came to America, was born in Ireland, in the city of Londonderry. His father and three uncles were Englishmen, who served under King William, and aided in defence of that city when besieged by the Roman Catholics, commanded by King James, in 1689. He was a Protestant of the Presbyterian denomination, a man of strong mind and correct principles. He married ELIZABETH PATTON, a sister of Col. James Patton, of Donegal, and removed with him from Ireland to the State of Virginia, in the year 1740. Col. Patton had for some years commanded a merchant ship, and was a man of property, enterprise and influence. He obtained an order of Council from the Governor of Virginia, under which he appropriated to himself and associates, 120,000 acres of the best lands lying above the Blue Ridge, in that State, several valuable tracts of which fell to the share of his descendants. He was killed by the Indians at Smithfield, in the year 1753. He left two daughters, one of whom married Capt. William Thompson, the other married Col. John Buchanan, and from the latter descended John Floyd, late member of Congress and Governor of the State of Virginia, James D. Breckinridge, of Louisville, late member of Congress from Kentucky, and William P. Anderson, late Colonel in the United States army. John Preston, on the passage from Ireland, lost part of his property in a storm, but being an associate, he obtained, under the order of Council aforesaid, a valuable tract of uncultivated land, called "Robinson's," which descended to his son, and until lately remained in the family.

John Preston's first residence in Virginia, was at Spring Hill, in Augusta county, but about the year 1743, he purchased, and with his family settled upon a tract of land adjoining Staunton, on the north side of that town, (now occupied by Gen. Baldwin,) where he died shortly after, and was buried at the Tinkling Spring Meeting House, leaving a widow and five children. Mrs. Preston, who possessed much strength of mind and energy of character, continued to reside upon the plantation they had purchased, until her children were all educated and married, when she removed to Greenfield, the seat of her son, Col. William Preston, where she died in 1776, at the age of seventy-six years.

The Children of John and Elizabeth Preston, were:

I. LETITIA PRESTON, who was born in Ireland, in 1728. She married Col. Robert Breckinridge, a farmer in Bottetourt county, Virginia. After his death, she removed to Kentucky, and died in the year 1798, aged seventy years. Her family consisted of four sons and one daughter.

1st. William Breckinridge, now living, a farmer near Lexington, Kentucky, who married Miss Gillam. His family consists of two sons and a daughter. His son, John B. Breckinridge, is a merchant in Staunton, Va., and has been twice married. Meredith Breckinridge died unmarried.

2d. John Breckinridge (dead) married Mary Cabell, and removed to Kentucky, in the year 1792. He was a lawyer of eminent standing, was a Senator in Congress, and shortly before his death, was appointed Attorney-General for the United States, under Mr. Jefferson's administration, and died in 1806. His family consisted of five sons and two daughters. 1st. Joseph Cabell Breckinridge, (dead) who married Miss Smith, a daughter of Dr. Smith, President of Princeton College, and left one son, John Breckinridge, a lawyer in Iowa, and four daughters—1st. Frances Ann, who married the Rev. J. C. Young, President of Danville College, and left the following children, viz.: Mary, Caroline Josephine, Jane Elizabeth, and Frances Breckinridge. 2d. Caroline L., married the Rev. Joseph J. Bullock, of Frankfort, and has three children, viz.: Waller, Mary and

PRESTON FAMILY.

AMONG the papers of my deceased father, the Hon. JOHN BROWN, I found a manuscript in his hand-writing, endorsed "memoranda of the Preston family." This record was commenced not very long before his death, (which occurred on the 29th of August, 1837,) and is not, therefore, as extensive as it is manifest that it was his intention to make it. So far as it relates to the early history of the family and the elder branches, it is complete, and furnishes information which, at that time, he alone could give. Having received many applications from distant members of the connection for copies of this manuscript, I have thought it would be more satisfactory to all to have it printed, and in order to make it as full as was practicable, I have availed myself of the assistance of Nathaniel Hart, Jr., of Woodford county, Kentucky, who has greatly enlarged it, partly from his own personal acquaintance with the younger members of the family, and partly from information of the correctness of which he has no doubt. Whatever defect there may be in it, can easily be corrected by some member of the branch in which it occurs, and I design sending a copy to all heads of families who may express any interest on the subject.

ORLANDO BROWN.

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 20th, 1842.

Gen. Baldwin,) where he died shortly after, and was buried at the Tinkling Spring Meeting House, leaving a widow and five children. Mrs. Preston, who possessed much strength of mind and energy of character, continued to reside upon the plantation they had purchased, until her children were all educated and married, when she removed to Greenfield, the seat of her son, Col. William Preston, where she died in 1776, at the age of seventy-six years.

The Children of John and Elizabeth Preston, were:

I. LETITIA PRESTON, who was born in Ireland, in 1728. She married Col. Robert Breckinridge, a farmer in Bottetourt county, Virginia. After his death, she removed to Kentucky, and died in the year 1798, aged seventy years. Her family consisted of four sons and one daughter.
