Points of Interest in Fayette County

In this county there are so many large Stock farms raising blooded horses for future kings and queens of the turf that to mention them would take a large volume so that only those of immediate interest having the recent winners can be touched upon.

On the Newtown and Ironworks pike approximately eight mile from Lexington is the home of Spencer, the winner of the Hambletonian the richest Stake in the Trotting horse racing. This horse is owned by Mr. David M. Look on his farm known as Castleton.

On the Russel Cave pike about eight miles out and a turn to the left on the Huffman's Mill pike will take you to the Home of Man O'War the famous race horse of the present day. He is stabled on the Farm of Mr. Samuel Riddle and Mr. Walter M. Jeffords known as the Faraway Farm. He is owned by the former.

On the Old Frankfort pike or on the Leestown pike is the home of this years three year old Champion, Blue Larkspur. This farm is owned by Mr. E. R. Bradley and is known as the Idle Hour Farm.

Each pike has many well kept farms on which may be found winners of yesterday in the race course, the trotting track, the show ring. In the show ring Saddle horses, thorough bred, cattle, sheep, swine, chickens may be found so that there is interest for all variety of tastes in live stock.

The historical interest may also be satisfied by seeing Bryan Station Spring where the women of the pioneers saved their lives as well as those of their men folk by bringing water to the fort just prior to the attack of the Indians. There is the old Mt. Horeb on the Ironworks and Newton Pikes. To mention any one farm would be slighting others so that one wishing further information of a more definite nature should inquire at the Lexington Automobile Club, The Legion information bureau, or the Lexington Board of Commerce, or U. S. Re-mount Service.

LEXINGTON

Lexington was settled in 1775 on June fifth by Robert Patterson, Simon Kenton and their party and the name was selected in honor of the Battle of Lexington, Massachusetts which news they had just heard.

It is located on two Federal Highways, one No. 25 running north and south, and one No. 60 running East and west. Besides these it is on the Dixie Highway, the National Midland Trail, The Boone Way, The Appalachian Way, the Cincinnati Lookout Mountain Air Line, and the L. L. Route.

It has the largest Loose Leaf Tobacco Market in the World, the center of production for Blue Grass seed, one of the largest centers of bus transportation in the United States, the center of breeding for race trotting and saddle horses in the United States. The Stud farms located in this district have a greater percentage of famous winners than any other horse breeding center in America.

Kentucky University and Transylvania University (the oldest University West of the Alleghenies) comprise the Men's colleges while Hamilton, Sayre College, and St. Athanasius are the women's colleges. Besides these the College of Music and private schools bring a large number of students to the active life of the city.

There are many historic points of interest which call to mind National Events and occurrences of the past as well as those pertaining to State and local. The old home of Henry Clay may be seen on Richmond Road. He was prominent in trying to avoid the condition which finally brought about the War of 1861-1865 as well as aiding the South American Republics in their attempts to remain free and independent.

On West Main Street is the home where Abraham Lincoln married Miss Todd and next to it is the West Main Baptist Church (colored) where the deed signed by Abraham Lincoln hangs today.

In Gratz Park where the Public Library stands is a small house where James Lane Allen taught school. This building is opposite Morrison Chapel of Transylvania University, established in 1786; on Second street and Mill is the home of Thomas Hart whose daughter Lucretia married Henry Clay and is the site where John Bradford printed the Kentucky Gazette in 1797.

On the corner of Market street and Second is the home where General George B. Duncan was born. He was in command of the 77th division and the 82 division. It was in the latter Sergt. Alvin Yorke made his famous capture. This site is also the home used by John Fox in his book the "Little Shephard of Kingdom Come".

The building just south of the corner of Short Street and Mill now the place where Norris News Stand is located is where Gironde's Ballroom was in operation to which Lafayette was taken for dances and is also the point James Lane Allen mentions in his book "Old King Solomon of Kentucky".

Cheapside now a park next to the Courthouse was a street where all the County day meetings were held at which the sale of every kind of article was sold or bartered.

The site of the Phoenix Hotel has been used as an hotel site since 1794 when many distinguished persons have stopped since that time.

Opposite the present site of the Lafayette Hotel is the point of an early Slave Gaol.

There are many other equally as interesting point, but space does not permit the mention of them.

BLUE GRASS REGION

Kentucky was first settled and pioneered by a group of men in North Carolina and Virginia who got together to form the Transylvania Company in order to obtain lands in the west. Daniel Boone was selected for this work because of his knowledge of scouting and woodcraft.

The original company was founded and formed as follows: Col. Richard Henderson, President and legal advisor, William Johnston, Secretary, Col. Nathaniel Hart, Col. Thomas Hart, David Hart, James Williams, Capt. John Luttrell and Leonard Henley Bullock. The others who were to act as agents and surveyors were in part, Daniel Boone, Isaac Shelby, James Robertson, John Donelson, General Samuel Hopkins, Robert Burton and Col. Thomas Allen. They were the ones who helped Daniel Boone cut the trail west.

It was in this Blue Grass region that the first settlement was started, first at Fort Boonesboro on the Kentucky River which is now in the process of being restored to it's first appearance. At Harrodsburg is the reproduction of old fort Harrod built in 1774 which contains the building with the same beam floors and the old implements as far as possible that were used in the old days.

On the way to Harrodsburg and Danville is Shakertown the place where the old religious sect lived many years and the present Shakertown Inn is the same building used by them. At Harrodsburg is The Beaumont Inn formerly Daughter's College and Graham Springs. Turn off at Shakertown into Dix Dam on the Dix River which produces power for Kentucky. Herrington Lake formed by the dam, and the Palisades of the Kentucky River add beauty to the Autumn days.

Camp Nelson on the Nicholasville Pike; Camp Nelson National Cemetery.

Asbury College, Wilmore. Chamere du Prairie where Lafayette visited. At Danville is Center College famous for it's Praying Colonels and graduates who have been representatives in the building of so many States of the Union. The Kentucky College for Women, to say nothing of the beautiful homes and historic places.

Each and every town in the blue grass has old and rich history to show and relate. Lancaster; Winchester, Richmond Danville, Nicholasville, Bergin, Harrodsburg, Lawrenceburg, Versailles, Frankfort, Georgetown, Paris and Cynthiana all within a radius of 40 miles of Lexington.

Here are the scenes of Indian warfare, the starting of Lewis and Clark's expedition, and the latter bloody conflict of 1861-1865.

Phoenix Hotel

LEXINGTON, KY.

Lexington, Ky. was named in memory of the First Battle of the Revolution which established the United States of America as a Supreme Power.

The progenitor of the Phoenix Hotel of today was established shortly thereafter in 1794.

During the interim of 135 years its premises has been Headquarters for each generation of Kentuckians who followed the Flag at every call. The Phoenix Hotel was a center of activity during the World War. It now extends to the Veterans of that war a cordial and hearty greeting on the occasion of their visit to Kentucky.

EXTRACT OF HAMAMELIS

“WITCH HAZEL.”

This remedy is a distillation, by a process peculiarly our own, retaining to a greater extent the essential and fixed oils contained in the Witch Hazel, than any other preparation of a similar nature ever offered to the public.

At the same time we make a clearer and purer article, nearly free from sediment, thereby rendering its use more pleasant and agreeable.

Since this Extract was first introduced we have received so many cordial endorsements of its efficacy and superiority over all other similar preparations, both from the Homœopathic Medical Profession, and those using it in their Domestic Practice, that we feel justified in calling the attention of the public generally to its value.

This Extract, used either internally or as a local application, has a wide curative range, and will either absolutely cure or materially relieve.

Burns,	Piles or	Quinsy,
Scalds,	Hemorrhoids,	Corns,
Bruises,	Diarrhœa,	Colic,
Cuts,	Neuralgia,	Stings of

Once introduced to a family it becomes almost indispensable.

THE ORIGIN OF THE "LITTLE WAIFS."

"On the Night of the Fourth," "When Knighthood was in Flower," "Captain Jinks" who was "A Stranger in a Strange Land," saw "The Fortune Teller" "Just Before Dawn" and made "A Run on the Bank" by backing "The Derby Winner" at Newmarket. Going to "Gay New York" he met "Miss Hobbs" at "A Ragtime Reception." She was once upon a time "A Casino Girl," but now she said she was "The Belle of New York." But "Town Topics" called her the "Belle of Bohemia." She also claimed to be "A Female Drummer." She said she was out for "A Day and a Night" and was not adverse to "A Round of Pleasure" and a little "Sporting Life" in "The Heart of Chicago" with a stranger. After having a "Pousse Cafe" at "The White Horse Tavern" she listened to "The Old Story" and yielded to "Passion's Power" and "A Greed for Gold." She said he might have a bit of "Old Chelsea" "Because She Loved Him So." Then they "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," passing through "The Bowery After Dark," where they saw the "Queen of Chinatown" and the "King of the Opium Ring" collecting the "Wages of Sin." Arriving "In Sight of St. Paul," near "McFadden's Row of Flats," he put his "Hand of Justice" "Under the Red Robe" and began to tickle "The Royal Box." Then "On the Quiet" he laid her on "The White Heather" and pulling out "Foxy Quiller" he told her that it was "The Flaming Arrow," and the "Salt of the Earth." But with a look of "Still Alarm" in her face, she murmured in a voice as liquid as the "Suawnee River" that it was not as good as "Richard Carvel" gave "Betty Sharp" in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" "Down Mobile." Nevertheless she accepted that it had cured "The Maneuvers of Jane." When he heard "Men and Women" say what "A Lady of Quality," he attempted to ascertain if "She Stooped to Conquer," but she said she was not one of "The Degenerates," and while that style might suit the "Girl from Paris," or the "French Maid," she was no "Spring Chicken" and wanted a "Hot Time in the Only Way." This made "Barbara Fidgety" and she gave him a "Grip of Steel," and they were soon "In Paradise" "Under the Dome." For a time it was "Hoss and Hoss," but in the "Struggle for Life" and with the "Power of the Press" he managed to touch her "Northern Lights" with "A Parlor Match," which gave her the pleasure of a "Midnight's Summer Dream." After going "Through the Breakers" and just missing "The Tornado," she sent for "Doctor Belgraff" and "The Hoosier Doctor" from "Chattanooga," and "Nine Months Later" she was the "Swell Miss of Fitzwell." She sent him word she was expecting "A New Boy," but it was a "Girl Wanted," like her "First Born," which was "Nobody's Claim." "A Day of Reckoning" soon came. "The District Attorney" had caught "The Defaulter" and she was "Courtied Into the Court." "The World's Verdict" was that she was "A Guilty Mother" of "Two Little Waifs," while he was the "Wrong Mr. Wright," whose fault was having "Too Much Johnson." "A Marriage of Convenience" was arranged, and she became "Papa's Wife" at "The Eleventh Hour." They then took "The Fast Mail" "On the Stroke of Twelve" for "The Old Homestead," where she now lives "A Contented Woman" at "Cripple Creek," awaiting "The Last Sentence" with "All the Comforts of Home."

THE PIERCE COUNTY
SAVINGS BANK

TACOMA, WASH.

Systematic Saving

—AND—

Compound

Interest

 HERE are two ways of looking at this subject. One is by looking backwards and seeing what you might have done ; the other is by looking forward and seeing what you may do.

Had you begun five years ago, and saved regularly, you would now have, at the rate of interest we allow depositors, the following amounts:

$1 00	per week	amounts in 5 years	to $	293.70
3.00	"	"	"	877.22
5.00	"	"	"	1,462.86

These results are obtained by allowing 8 per cent. interest and compounding it every three months. At this rate and method we can allow you results as follows:

- For $92.36 we give you Certificate of Deposit for $100 due in 1 year.
- For $170.70 we give you Certificate of Deposit for $200 due in 2 years.
- For $236.51 we give you Certificate of Deposit for $300 due in 3 years.
- For $291.39 we give you Certificate of Deposit for $400 due in 4 years.
- For $329.77 we give you Certificate of Deposit for $500 due in 5 years.
- For $452.89 we give you Certificate of Deposit for $1,000 due in 10 years.

The reason the above results can be obtained is because on all money we loan we get the following results, bank discount, interest compounded every three months:

We loan $	79.25	1 year	and get $	100
"	125.42	2 years	"	200
"	149.09	3 "	"	300
"	156.00	5 "	"	500
"	157.46	4 "	"	400
"	97.22	10 "	"	1,000

The stock of this bank should pay good dividends. A few shares can be had at par, $100 per share, and may be paid for in installments, on which compound interest is allowed in the following manner:

$7.93	per mo.	for 1 year	pays for 1 share	of $100
3.81	"	2 years	"	1 " 100
2.43	"	3 "	"	1 " 100
1.74	"	4 "	"	1 " 100
1.31	"	5 "	"	1 " 100

By paying $13.10 per month for five years you will own $1,000 of the stock, which should pay you annual dividends of from 10 to 15 per cent.

If you have any idle money that you wish to loan, call and see us, as the demand is larger than our supply. We can place your

The undersigned proposes to establish at Versailles, an Office to be styled the "Farmers Exchange & General Agency" on the plan and for the purposes following - to wit:

- First. To keep the accounts of Farmers by a thorough system of Book-keeping by which the farmer may ascertain at any time the Conditions of his estate, exactly what he is making or losing on any particular enterprise or in his business for the year. A statement sheet from his accounts will be furnished Quarterly - Semi-Annually or Annually as he may desire - and his business be kept strictly Confidential.
- Second. To act as a General Agent for selling or purchasing property of every description - leasing real estate & hiring Servants of labor.
- Third. To attend to the Collection of debts in all parts of the Country & to write Warranties, Leases, Agreements & Contracts.
- Fourth. To act as a General Intelligence to ascertain the prices of stock produce of every description of property in all sections of the Country & will be able to give information upon all subjects of interest to the farming & business Community.

The following advantages will be enjoyed by subscribers of Charge. They will have the privilege of using my Office as a Club room; have access to all the valuable Agricultural Commercial & Sporting papers & periodicals published in the U. S. and through my office be afforded a most valuable advertising medium.

Among the numerous advantages to be derived from the establishment of the "Farmers Exchange & General Agency" are the following. The Subscriber will be enabled at a very small cost & with little or no trouble to themselves to keep their business affairs thoroughly & systematically arranged & they will have Confidential Agent at a Central point to whom they can in-trust the negotiation of any business.

They will be relieved of great trouble in the Sale or purchase of property - the employment of Servants & laborers, renting or leasing real estate & in the Collection of their debts.

They will be enabled to keep well informed of the state of the markets in all parts of the Country - for every description of property & upon all subjects of interest to the farming Community.

Probably one of the greatest advantages which would result from the establishment of this office - would be the more intimate Association of farmers & in identifying their interests.
They will be better enabled by such Association to keep informed of the Changes & Improvements in the Agricultural Art & to adopt uniform Scales of prices. Similar offices must be established in the adjoining Counties & throughout the various Districts of the State - thus forming a Community of interest which has not heretofore existed.

Washington, D.C., Aug. 5, 1845. J. M. Pomeroy.

A WEEK OF SELF-DENIAL FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS.

"Jesus said, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself."

"Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

AT the last meeting of the General Assembly of our Church, the Standing Committee of Foreign Missions were unanimous in the opinion that if a financial exigency arose in the Foreign Mission work, it was desirable that the Executive Committee should issue an appeal to the churches to observe a special week of self-denial in preparation for the October collection.

While the General Assembly declined to take action recommending a week of self-denial irrespective of the needs of the work, the able Chairman of the Standing Committee declared to the Assembly the Committee's unanimous agreement that a call should be issued if the exigencies of the work required it, but stated that it was thought best to leave the decision of the matter to the Executive Committee; and the understanding therefore was that the Executive Committee should issue a call, if a financial necessity should arise.

At the last regular meeting of the Executive Committee, the Treasurer reported a considerable decrease in the contributions to the cause. The receipts this year to date are nearly $5,000 behind those of the corresponding period of last year. This decrease is sufficient to justify grave concern, when we remember the increased expenditures required by the enlargement of the work, especially the sending out of seventeen new missionaries this autumn. In view of these facts the Executive Committee unanimously decided that a week of self-denial preparatory to the October collection should be appointed, and they accordingly instructed the Secretaries to issue an appeal to the pastors and congregations of our Church.

In obeying the Committee's instructions, attention is respectfully called to the following facts: The deficit of nearly $5,000 given above, and the large number of new missionaries soon to go out, for whose support provision must be made; also that it is not sufficient that the contributions of this year should keep pace with those of last year; they must considerably exceed those contributions, in order to meet the increased demands on the Treasury.

Our beloved Church has great encouragement to observe this week of self-denial when we mark how signally the Lord has blessed similar efforts made by sister churches for this cause.

The venerable London Missionary Society which celebrates its Centennial in 1895, has this year raised $50,000 by the observance of a week of self-denial appointed by the Church.

The Baptist Missionary Society of England in grateful remembrance of Carey's grand work and the organization of the first Missionary Society in 1792, resolved to raise during the present year a Centenary Thanksgiving Fund of $500,000. The Divine blessing is resting upon this effort of faith, for already over $400,000 have been contributed. In like manner the Missionary Society of the Church of England has appointed a special season of humiliation and prayer to beseech the Lord to supply the needs of their work.

It is necessary and highly appropriate at this time that our own Church should adopt similar measures to increase her contributions for the Foreign Mission work. Shall we, during this Centennial year of Missions, be unmoved by God's goodness to His church in the past, and the wonders of His grace in saving during the last year over 50,000 precious souls among the heathen? While brethren of other churches over the world are holding Centennial meetings during October, let not our own Church be behind hand in showing by our generous offerings in the October collection, our love to Christ and zeal for the extension of His Kingdom.

The next regular collection for Foreign Missions is appointed for the first Sabbath in October. The Committee would suggest the week previous as a week of self-denial (i.e. from Sabbath, September 25th to October 1st inclusive) and would earnestly request, in the Master's name, that this week be observed in all our Churches. Let us hail the time as an opportunity which our Lord gives us to show by self-denial our love to Him. Let every member of our Church, with eyes fixed on the Cross of Calvary, ask himself or herself, what sacrifice will I make for Him who "loved me and gave Himself for me?"

There has recently been given to the church a beautiful example of self-denial for this cause, which should touch the hearts of all; Brothers Lane and Lapsley and Miss Cunningham have laid their lives upon the altar; shall we not in view of their sacrifice, following the blessed Master, gladly deny ourselves to give freely of our substance? Let us all then for Christ's sake heartily enter into the plan of observing this week; and may the great Head of the church make it a season not only in which His people shall do great things for the spread of the Gospel among the heathen, but also one of rich blessing to the pastors and congregations who celebrate it! May He give back "a hundredfold" to all our people the blessing they confer on Christ's perishing ones in distant lands!

"Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ that though He was rich yet for your sakes He became poor that ye through His poverty might be rich." "For the love of Christ constraineth us."

Respectfully submitted,

THE SECRETARIES

OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.
