

Lexington Ky
July 12th 1861
Saml W Daniel Esq

Dear Saml
In the spring of 1861 I bred two of Maj Duncoms Jennetts & ~~Plot~~ Hays Jack at the following prices 40$ for Jack colt & 30$ for a Jennetts colt I do not know whether of them was produced a colt but of course you will remember. Please advise Mr Hays of the facts concerning the Jennetts so that he can settle with Maj Duncom for same Yours Truly

Wm. Rector, Esq
Saml W Daniel Esq
Hutchinson Sta
K C R R

Overton Co Ky
Mr. Daniel, Please answer at your earliest Convenience to general letter to C. Coleman, Lexington Ky who is settling the Business

ASTOR HOUSE
STETSON & CO.
NEW YORK.

New York Dec 14. 1862

Mr. W. W. Palmer

Sir

Yours of the 9th from Covington was rec^d in due time, stating that prices had advanced - I hope they have not got much the start of you - I sent $5,000 on the 9th to Lexington by Express for you also wrote you - & wrote you to Paris.
I believe that in my letter with the money
I wrote that sheep were not worth $4⁰⁰ per 100 lbs but you know how good the sheep are and can judge for yourself -

I shall be disappointed if the high prices of last week don't call out an over stock of cattle - I shall expect to hear from you again in a day or two

P. Cazier said the Costs in the Jenkins suit would be $300 - we ought to be made good for money paid out at least - ~~Adding~~ Adding your expenses for Albany - but if you settle with Mr. Duncan let it be in full for all matters between us & Duncan & Jenkins for I want no more business with Jenkins -

ASTOR HOUSE
STATION
NEW YORK

You Call at the Wadsworth House for Letters - at Buffalo - & I shall write you - as I may send some one to see the Cattle, if I should find the man that wanted

Yours Truly
Albion

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]