

Oxford, October 3, 1858.

My Dear Aunt

I received your letter with a great deal of pleasure and take this opportunity of answering it. I am glad you like Torrington so much and hope you will continue to do so. I got a letter from Lottie last night. Ella has been sick in bed for several days but is now a great deal better. We are going over to Mr. Burdett to get prepared to come here. I feel a great deal more willing to stay since he was here he brought me some very nice Peaches and Grapes. I would give anything to see little Sue now I think about her a great deal I expect she is grown considerably. The girls are very kind here since Ella has been sick there has been a good many in to see her and they are all so attentive and kind. Tell Annie and Mary Ellen they must write to me you must let them go to that Toy shop that I was at when I was in the city Cousin Sarah will show them where it is. Has Sarah got a