My Dearest Uncle and Aunt.

I write in haste this morning to thank you for your kindness in getting my bonnet, it fits me beautifully and we are all very much pleased with it, Mother says she could not have done better if she had selected it herself and Father says it is the prettiest bonnet I ever had. Mother says she dont wonder at you laughing at her about the brilliantine, she thought there was only four yards when she sent for all that was left, but she can make very good use of the ten yards as she will make herself
